Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region, Volume II Ashraf Mishrif, Yousuf Al Balushi, 2018-01-09 This volume explores the challenges to diversification in Gulf countries which can no longer rely on profits from hydrocarbons to fund national expenditures. It elaborates on the problem of weak institutions, lack of coordination between policy makers and executors, limited investment in research and development, and a workforce that is too poorly skilled to compete in the private sector. In addition to analyzing issues in areas such as education, labor, business, and trade, the contributors underscore the importance of using global best practices to overcome fundamental weaknesses in the Gulf Cooperative Council's economic structure that limit opportunities for economic diversification. This is the second volume in Economic Diversification in the Gulf Region.

Iran's Networks of Influence in the Middle East The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2020-03-31 Tehran's ability to fight by, with, and through third parties in foreign jurisdictions has become a valuable and effective sovereign capability that gives Iran strategic advantage in the region. Tehran has possessed a form of this capability since the Islamic Revolution in 1979, but its potency and significance have risen sharply in the past decade to the point where it has brought Iran more regional influence and status than either its nuclear or ballistic missile programmes. The IISS Strategic Dossier: Iran's Networks of Influence provides an understanding of how Iran builds, operates, and uses this capability. Based on original field research, open source information, and interviews with a range of sources, the dossier conducts an audit of Iran's activities in the principal regional theatres of Iraq, Lebanon, Syria, and Yemen, and its reach into Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, and Kuwait. It includes an examination of Tehran's nurturing of groups such as the Houthis in Yemen, the Badr Organisation in Iraq, Hizbullah in Lebanon, and Shia militias in Syria, and details related to recruitment, weapons supply, logistics, and command and control systems. Iran's Networks of Influence is intended through objective, fact-based analysis to inform both policymakers and practitioners and to stimulate debate on the wider significance of Iran's use of third-party partners and the strategic depth they afford Tehran. The dossier also examines the advantages that Iran possesses through its recent experience of conflict and its ability to mobilise and deploy sympathetic Shia communities across theatres. In a time of rising tension in the region, the dossier looks at how Iran might further develop the use of its partnership capability and the risks and constraints it might face.

The Comic Art of War Christina M. Knopf, 2015-08-13. For military cartoonists, the absurdity of war inspires a laugh or cry response and provides an endless source of un-funny amusement. Cartoons by hundreds of artists at arms from more than a dozen countries and spanning two centuries are included in this study, the first to consider such a broad range of military comics. War and military life are examined through the inside jokes of the men and women who served. The author analyzes themes of culture, hierarchy, enemies and allies, geography, sexuality, combat and civilian relations and describes how comics function within a community. A number of artists included were known for their work with Disney, Marvel Comics, the New Yorker and Madison Avenue, but many lesser-known artists are recognized.
