

VERBS : SIMPLE PAST TENSE IN RECOUNT TEXT

An Overview of English Verb Forms

Every verb in English can have a base form, an -ing form, a past simple form and a past participle.

We use the base form for:

- the present simple tense. For example "They live in Rome."
- the infinitive. For example, "I want to learn English."

We use the -ing form (or the gerund) for:

- continuous tenses, like the present continuous. For example, "He's working"
- verbs as nouns. For example, "Swimming is good for you."

And we use the past participle for:

- perfect tenses, like the present perfect. For example, "I've finished"
- the passive forms. For example, "It was made in Japan"
- adjectives. For example, "The chair is broken"

What are Regular Verbs?

Regular verbs in English create the past simple and past participle by adding -ed to the base form.

For example:

| BASE FORM | PAST SIMPLE | PAST PARTICIPLE |
|-----------|-------------|-----------------|
| arrive    | arrived     | arrived         |
| call      | called      | called          |
| wait      | waited      | waited          |

If the verb ends in a consonant and -y, we change the -y to -i and added -ed. For example:

| BASE FORM | PAST SIMPLE | PAST PARTICIPLE |
|-----------|-------------|-----------------|
| marry     | married     | married         |
| study     | studied     | studied         |
