The Year That Defined American Journalism W. Joseph Campbell, 2013-10-08 The Year that Defined American Journalism explores the succession of remarkable and decisive moments in American journalism during 1897 a year of significant transition that helped redefine the profession and shape its modern contours This defining year featured a momentous clash of paradigms pitting the activism of William Randolph Hearst s participatory journalism of action against the detached fact based antithesis of activist journalism as represented by Adolph Ochs of the New York Times and an eccentric experiment in literary journalism pursued by Lincoln Steffens at the New York Commercial Advertiser Resolution of the three sided clash of paradigms would take years and result ultimately in the ascendancy of the Times counter activist model which remains the defining standard for mainstream American journalism The Year That Defined American Journalism introduces the year study methodology to mass communications research and enriches our understanding of a pivotal moment in media history belongs to a list of countries that Hallin and Mancini place in the group of the Democratic Corporatist model quoted after Hovden 2009 p 149 Hujanen 2009 p 2 The central elements of this group are high newspaper circulation strong professionalism and state intervention They rose from a history of early democratization consensus based governments a history of democratic corporatism and a strong welfare state quoted after Hovden 2009 p 149 These elements show clearly when taking a look at the Finnish history Newspapers were born as political organs around 1900 1917 Finland declared its independence and the welfare state has been built up until today The era of newspapers as political organs ended only at the end of the 1990s and was followed by a non political news policy In combination to this change in the 1950s the development of commercial media markets began and continues until today One of the consequences of this was that the newspapers owned by media chains have to fulfil profit expectations Hujanen 2009 p 2 Finland has had different media eras but the question is which cycle we are experiencing now The media landscapes everywhere are moving being discussed and worried about therefore it might be the era of change and challenges Like Ann Axelsson says the only certainty in our industry the newspaper industry A N is the uncertainty Das Magazin 2009      Author and Journalist, 1921      Georgia Journalism of
