Lyman,1991     Extraordinary Educators Charles A. Reavis,1988 Profiles are presented of six superior educators whose students achieved an excellence far beyond what might be expected of them The subjects were a speech and drama teacher a girls basketball coach a choral music teacher an art teacher and principals of an elementary and a secondary school The major finding of the study was that without exception these leaders gave a high number of correctives Any deviations even minor ones from their high standards were corrected quickly and not infrequently very sharply Other significant findings were 1 they were purposive demanding perfectionists 2 they had a sense of humor and tended toward self deprecation 3 they gave only a limited amount of praise 4 they stressed self discipline responsibility and always doing one s best 5 they attained a high amount of time on task and 6 they were very family oriented Comparisons are made between the characteristics of these educators and leaders in the business world Recommendations are made for teacher and administrator education JD
