National Plan for Higher Education South Africa. Ministry of Education,2001 Study SA ,2006 Student Financing of Higher Education Donald Heller,Claire Callender,2013-06-07 The financing of higher education is undergoing great change in many countries around the world In recent years many countries are moving from a system where the costs of funding higher education are shouldered primarily by taxpayers through government subsidies to one where students pay a larger share of the costs There are a number of factors driving these trends including A push for massification of higher education in the recognition that additional revenue streams are required above and beyond those funds available from governments in order to achieve higher participation rates Macroeconomic factors which lead to constraints on overall government revenues Political factors which manifest in demands for funding of over services thus restricting the funding available for higher tertiary education A concern that the returns to higher education accrue primarily to the individual rather than to society and thus students should bear more of the burden of paying for it This volume will help to contribute to an understanding of how these trends occur in various countries and regions around the world and the impact they have on higher education institutions students and society as a whole With contributions for the UK USA South Africa and China this vital new book gives a truly global picture of the rapidly changing situation

Report of the NASFAA Task Force on Student Loan Indebtedness National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA), 2013

In light of increasing concern about student loans, debt levels, and rising default rates, which coincide with worries about college costs, affordability, and transparency, the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA) convened a task force in 2012 to study this issue and make recommendations for improvement. NASFAA's Task Force on Student Indebtedness was charged with examining current trends and making recommendations aimed at improving the system for students and institutions throughout all stages of borrowing, including pre-borrowing, in-school, and repayment. NASFAA's Board of Directors reviewed and approved the eight recommendations featured in this report. Taken together, these eight recommendations address shortcomings in the current student loan system at each level of borrowing.

preborrowing in school and repayment They were each designed with the goal of achieving 1 More informed borrowers 2 More responsible borrowing 3 Tools or frameworks for institutions to assist borrowers 4 More borrowers successfully repaying their loans and 5 Federal and institutional policies that reinforce all of the above In contrast to the recent loan program changes which arose strictly out of fiscal concerns these recommendations are intended to serve as starting points for meaningful policy discussions surrounding borrowing and student loan reform The hope is that these discussions will lead toward better designed loan programs that serve the needs of today's borrowers as they pursue their educational goals Members of the task force include Chuck Knepfle Chair Brenda Brown Chris Christensen Dan Davenport Ron Day Pam Fowler Anna Griswold Rita Grogan Jane Hickey Kevin Jensen Craig Munier David Page Bernie Pekala Tom Sakos Yara Santana Rick Shipman and Joan Zanders     College Financial Aid Carol A. Jensen, 2014-01-01 This book offers college students and families a wealth of information to determine their best options on where and when to attend college and just how to pay for it
