

The learner will be expected to compile a portfolio of evidence based on the research/investigation on a specific topic to depict, sell, demonstrate or advertise the topic. This portfolio will contain all the evidence on the topic that the learner could gather. This should include reports, presentations, photographs, pictures, graphs, sketches, diagrams, etc.

An example of a portfolio of evidence: Evidence of the degradation of the environment.

4.5.2 Project

The project will be a piece of work in which knowledge, skills and values which lead towards competence in the specific or integrated content, are demonstrated. The project requires extended reading and writing on the part of the learner. The project will involve thorough investigation into and sourcing information on a selected topic in the curriculum. This could take the form of an interview, observation and making suggestions to improve upon the topic. The objective for the project should be clear and thorough planning should take place, e.g. preparing the questions for an interview. This is followed by the research, and finally the data/ information has to be collated into evidence. The evidence will be in the form of an essay with sub-headings relating to the criteria of the task.

Although learners will spend time outside of contact time to collect resources and information, the completion of the task has to be facilitated by the teacher in class time. The topic and nature of the project will be determined by the content covered according to the annual teaching plan. Learners should be given a project before the end of the second term, after the content related to the project has been addressed, for submission during the third term. Learners will need adequate guidance at the outset of the project and progress should be monitored throughout. All assessment criteria applicable to the project has to be discussed with the learners prior to the commencement of the project.

Examples of a project:

- Community project to address a social or environmental issue
- Investigation of lifestyle choices and their impact on the overall well-being of the South African youth
- Research and apply decision-making skills to challenging situations set in different contexts: a plan of action or advice for long-term success should be provided.

When preparing a project, consider these minimum requirements:

- A cover page
- A table of contents
- Text divided into paragraphs/sections as indicated in the instructions/criteria for the project
- Pictures, photos, diagrams and graphs may be included
- Include a bibliography
- The project should be bound or stapled.

4.5.3 Examinations

Examinations of at least 90 minutes each will be administered twice a year as part of the internal examination

Life Science Paper3 Exemplar For 2014:

Genetically engineered products: Preparing for the future Patricia Machado Bueno Fernandes, Deise Maria Fontana Capalbo, Carmen Vicien, 2022-12-26      Unfolding Cluster Evolution Fiorenza Belussi, Jose Luis Hervás-Oliver, 2016-08-05

Various theories have been put forward as to why business and industry develops in clusters and despite good work being carried out on path dependence and dynamics this is still very much an emerging topic in the social sciences To date no overarching theoretical framework has been developed to show how clusters evolve Unfolding Cluster Evolution aims to address this gap by presenting theoretical and empirical research on the geography of innovation This contributed volume seeks to shed light on the understanding of clusters and its dynamic evolution The book provides evidence to suggest that traditional perspectives from evolutionary economic geography need to be wedded to management thinking in order to reach this point Bringing together thinking from a range of disciplines and countries across Europe this book explores a wide range of topics from the capability approach to network dynamics to multinational corporations to firm entry and exit and social capital This book will be of interest to policy makers and students of urban studies economic geography and planning and development      Handbook of Research on Advancing Critical Thinking in Higher Education Wisdom, Sherrie, Leavitt,

Lynda, 2015-07-17 The importance of critical thinking has surged as academics in higher education realize that many students upon entering college lack the critical thinking skills necessary to succeed While much has been written regarding the lack of critical thinking less has been written on the success of methods implemented to develop this fundamental skill The Handbook of Research on Advancing Critical Thinking in Higher Education explores the effective methods and tools being used to integrate the development of critical thinking skills in both undergraduate and graduate studies Due to the difficulties associated with teaching critical thinking skills to learners of any age this publication is a crucial addition to the scholarly reference works available to pre service and early career teachers seasoned educational professionals professors across disciplines curriculum specialists and educational administrators      Entrepreneurial Learning City Regions

Judith James, Jean Preece, Raúl Valdés-Cotera, 2017-09-21 This book proposes an alternative strategy to improve and sustain prosperity through the creation of an entrepreneurial culture in learning cities or city regions The edited collection provides insights into how entrepreneurship education job creation and social inclusion can be aligned through entrepreneurial learning in the context of territorial development With rich and varied contributions from a wide field including policy makers entrepreneurs an investment banker leaders of universities and councils the voluntary sector scientists educators and students it reviews and assesses how learning cities and regions may become more prosperous by investing in the development of entrepreneurial skills throughout lifelong learning Reinforced by examples on developing and retaining entrepreneurial people this book contributes to our understanding of how entrepreneurial learning can be fostered in different city and city region contexts It makes an interesting contribution to the field in terms of mapping out complex issues and testing the practical validity of the concept while also providing rich and insightful case studies centred on the Welsh experience with entrepreneurial learning city regions The high quality international contributions demonstrate the new worldwide interest in developing an entrepreneurial culture for the benefit of a city or region rather than an entrepreneurial mind set for individual benefit This fascinating subject will be of interest to many social scientists policymakers and practitioners It will be found especially valuable for professionals involved in economic inclusive and sustainable city or regional development The Indian National Bibliography ,2017-10 Indian National Bibliography B.
