A Complaint is a Gift Janelle Barlow,Claus Møller,1996 Customer complaints can give businesses a wake up call when they're not achieving their fundamental purpose meeting customer needs. They are a feedback mechanism that can help organizations rapidly and inexpensively shift products, service style and market focus. Businesses that don't value their customers' complaints suffer from costly negative word of mouth advertising. Presenting dozens of real life striking examples of poor and excellent complaint handling, Barlow and Møller show that companies must view complaints as gifts if they are to have loyal customers.
