Klinger,2026-01-22

This book provides a critical review of the long term effectiveness of education and social protection policies enacted by G10 countries in response to the global pandemic The COVID 19 pandemic caused the most significant disruption to education systems since the devastation of World War II Successive waves and variants of the coronavirus resulted in school closures and spurred a range of policy interventions across national education systems to combat both the cognitive i e achievement in reading mathematics and science and non cognitive socioemotional development mental and physical health impacts on student achievement and wellbeing This book aims to evaluate the long term efficacy of such interventions drawing on an analysis of a cross section of nine industrialized countries the United Kingdom France Germany Italy Sweden Netherlands Belgium Canada and Japan It further offers cross national insights for policymakers and discusses the critical importance of broader notions of academic resilience in a post pandemic world Ultimately this volume aims to identify national policies that have helped to buffer students from the long term challenges associated with the aftermath of the pandemic A timely and important text it will be of interest to researchers and policymakers in education policy pandemic response impact evaluation and student mental health Fibre & Fabric ,1898
