Dumb History of the World: Ancient Greece - 101 Petty Feuds, Petroglyphs & Philosophers Who Would've Been Menaces on Twitter Delovren C., 2025-10-18

Think Ancient Greece was all majestic marble temples, wise philosophers stroking their beards and noble Spartans making heroic last stands? Think again. What if the cradle of Western Civilization was also a hotbed of petty feuds, terrible decisions and legendary figures who would have been absolute menaces on social media? Welcome to DUMB HISTORY OF THE WORLD: ANCIENT GREECE, the hilarious and shockingly accurate story of a civilization that invented democracy and then immediately invented a way to vote its best politicians off the island for no good reason. This isn't your boring high school textbook. This is a relentlessly entertaining tour through nearly 2 000 years of history from the bull leaping Minoans of the Bronze Age to the final fatal showdown between Cleopatra and the Roman Empire. Spanning from the mysterious Bronze Age to the last stand of Cleopatra, this book breaks down the chaos of Greek history into 101 bite-sized, easy-to-read tales. Inside this collection of strange but true stories, you'll discover:

1. How the brilliant mathematician Pythagoras, famous for his theorem about triangles, also ran a secret philosophical cult with a mortal fear of beans.
2. The time Athens' biggest military invasion was derailed by a city-wide panic over a mysterious spree of religious vandalism.
3. Why the most feared soldiers in Greece for over 30 years were an elite army of 150 gay couples known as the Sacred Band of Thebes, who fought on the principle that no one wants to look bad in front of their partner.
4. How Alexander the Great solved the impossible Gordian Knot by simply cheating with his sword, a perfect metaphor for his entire world-conquering career.
5. The incredible story of the Antikythera Mechanism, a 2 000 year old analog computer discovered in a shipwreck that was more technologically advanced than anything made for the next thousand years.
6. How the statesman Pericles used an entire military alliance's treasury to fund an extreme makeover for Athens, building the Parthenon with other people's money.
7. The bizarre story of Ptolemy Alexander the Great's general, who hijacked his dead boss's funeral procession and stole the corpse to use as a political trophy in Egypt.
8. Why the famous Oracle at Delphi was a master of vague posting, giving cryptic advice that was never technically wrong and always expensive.

From the epic Trojan War and the 300 Spartans at Thermopylae to the brutal Peloponnesian War between Athens and Sparta, this book covers it all. You'll meet key figures like Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, and many more, all presented in a fun, accessible way that's perfect for history buffs and anyone who's ever wondered about the crazy things that happened in ancient Greece.

Philip of Macedon and Archimedes We ll explore core concepts like the polis the phalanx and Stoicism all without the dense academic jargon It s the story of Greek mythology politics and science told without the boring bits Written in a witty sarcastic and compulsively readable style DUMB HISTORY is the perfect book for fans of smart comedy and popular history from writers like Bill Bryson and Mary Roach readers who love Greek myths and want the real story behind them students who need to understand ancient history for a class but want a version that s actually fun and anyone who believes the best way to learn about the past is to laugh with it Forget the dry dates and dusty artifacts If you want to understand the civilization that shaped our world and laugh out loud while you do it then scroll up and click Buy Now to uncover the hilarious human and surprisingly dumb side of Ancient Greece Customer Relationship Management Samit Chakravorti,2023-02-23
