witnessing new and novel instances of cyber fraud and digital theft the authorities have their hands full trying to prevent more cases and working towards solving the existing ones Our Cover Story demystifies this alarming trend speaking with victims who recount their ordeal as well as law enforcement officials who discuss the steps being taken The name he goes by is as catchy and enigmatic as his steadily expanding body of work In CityZen we catch up with Binaya Kumar Panda as he talks about his experiments with sound music and words Books can provoke deep thought boost your understanding of history culture and people or simply help take your mind off the humdrum of life This World Laughter Day we take you on a fun filled journey with a selection of books that will bring a smile to your faces Find out more in the City Literature section Talking of books the section also delves into the gripping themes of the Shiva Trilogy from celebrated author Amish Tripathi Continuing with our series in City Tales we bring you some interesting insights into the Temple City s Papanasini Tank Read all about its historical and cultural significance Bengaluru formerly known as Bangalore is among the first names that comes to mind when one talks about IT hubs in the country In recent years Bhubaneswar has also emerged as a prominent educational and IT hub However as we find out in City Beat when it comes to comparing the quality of life and lifestyle in the two cities the similarities seem to end here City Health highlights some interesting Yoga concepts that centre around Ayurveda s time tested philosophies about good health and well being At the same time our Food and Wine section looks at traditional drinks from Odisha that are designed to beat the heat in an effective and healthy manner Beyond the initial shock and grief last month s terror attack in Pahalgam continues to anger and agitate minds across the nation We bring you the low down on how things have unfolded so far In Cityflix we take a deep dive into the latest box office sensation Sinners which our reviewer describes as one of the most genre defying films in recent memory

A New City O/S Stephen Goldsmith, Neil Kleiman, 2017-11-28 Proposing an entirely new governance model to unleash innovation throughout local government At a time when trust is dropping precipitously and American government at the national level has fallen into a state of long term partisan based gridlock local government can still be effective indeed more effective and even more responsive to the needs of its citizens Based on decades of direct experience and years studying successful models around the world the authors of this intriguing book propose a new operating system O S for cities Former mayor and Harvard professor Stephen Goldsmith and New York University professor Neil Kleiman suggest building on the giant leaps that have been made in technology social engagement and big data Calling their approach distributed governance Goldsmith and Kleiman offer a model that allows public officials to mobilize new resources surface ideas from unconventional sources and arm employees with the information they need to become pre emptive problem solvers This book highlights lessons from the many innovations taking place in today s cities to show how a new O S can create systemic transformation For students of government A New City O S The Power of Distributed Governance presents a groundbreaking strategy for rethinking the governance of cities marking an important evolution of the current bureaucratic authority based model dating from the 1920s More important the book is designed for practitioners starting with public sector executives managers and frontline workers By weaving real life examples into a coherent model the authors have created a step by step guide for all those who would put the needs of citizens front and center Nothing will do more to restore trust in government than solutions that work A New City O S The Power of Distributed Governance puts those solutions within reach of those public officials responsible for their delivery
