Unlocking Multilingual Learners' Potential Diane Staehr Fenner, Sydney Snyder, Meghan Gregoire-Smith, 2024-01-10

Bring classroom content to life for multilingual learners. In this eagerly anticipated revision of their bestselling book authors Diane Staehr Fenner, Sydney Snyder, and Meghan Gregoire Smith share dynamic research-backed strategies that every educator of multilingual learners (MLs) can add to their repertoire. Including more of what educators loved from the first edition, authentic classroom examples, a wide variety of research-based instructional strategies, and practical tools to implement across grade levels and content areas, this is the ultimate practical guide to unlocking the potential of MLs in K-12 classrooms. With fresh graphics and eye-catching colors, this thoroughly revised edition also includes Considerations for newcomers and students with interrupted or no formal education. An added chapter on building scaffolded instruction and peer learning opportunities into MLs' academic reading and writing activities. Additional opportunities for reflection and application. A new unit planning template aligned with research-based instructional practices, including a completed example unit. Situated within five core beliefs that frame the must-haves for MLs' equitable and excellent education, Unlocking Multilingual Learners' Potential is a guide to research-based practices and a toolbox of strategies every educator can implement to make content accessible and increase language proficiency among MLs.

Family Life, Family Law, and

Family Justice Marsha Garrison, 2022-10-28. Family Life, Family Law, and Family Justice: Tying the Knot combines history, social science, and legal analysis to chart the evolution and interdependence of family life and family law. It portrays current trends in family life, explains the pressing policy challenges these trends have produced, and analyzes the changes in family law that are essential to meeting these challenges. The challenges are large and pressing. Across the industrialized West, nonmarital birth, relational stress, multi-partner fertility, and relationship dissolution have increased, producing a dramatic rise in single parenthood, poverty, and childhood risk. This concentration of familial and economic risk accelerates socioeconomic inequality and retards intergenerational mobility. Although the divide is most pronounced in the United States, the same patterns now affect families throughout the Western world. Across the European Union, there are 9.2 million lone parents and just under half of their families live in poverty. Tying the Knot demonstrates how today's family patterns are deeply rooted in long-standing class-based differences in family life and explains why these class-based differences have accelerated. It explains how the values that guide family law development inevitably reflect the world in which families live and develops a new family law capable of meeting the needs of twenty-first-century families. The book will be of considerable interest to family specialists from a number of fields, including law, demography, economics, history, political science, public health, social policy, and sociology.
