Mergent Municipal & Government Manual ,2010 Mergent International Manual ,2009 Highly complex syllable structure: A typological and diachronic study Shelece Easterday,2019-11-13 The syllable is a natural unit of organization in spoken language whose strongest cross linguistic patterns are often explained in terms of a universal preference for the CV structure Syllable patterns involving long sequences of consonants are both typologically rare and theoretically marginalized with few approaches treating these as natural or unproblematic structures This book is an investigation of the properties of languages with highly complex syllable patterns The two aims are i to establish whether these languages share other linguistic features in common such that they constitute a distinct linguistic type and ii to identify possible diachronic paths and natural mechanisms by which these patterns come about in the history of a language These issues are investigated in a diversified sample of 100 languages 25 of which have highly complex syllable patterns Languages with highly complex syllable structure are characterized by a number of phonetic phonological and morphological features which serve to set them apart from languages with simpler syllable patterns These include specific segmental and suprasegmental properties a higher prevalence of vowel reduction processes with extreme outcomes and higher average morpheme word ratios The results suggest that highly complex syllable structure is a linguistic type distinct from but sharing some characteristics with other proposed holistic phonological types including stress timed and consonantal languages The results point to word stress and specific patterns of gestural organization as playing important roles in the diachronic development of these patterns out of simpler syllable structures Bioengineering systems for therapeutic and in vitro platforms Loredana De Bartolo,Antonella Piscioneri,Dimitrios Stamatialis,Feng-Huei Lin,2022-12-22 P.A.R.T.S. Steven de Belder,Theo van Rompay,2006 Library Literature & Information Science ,2007 An index to library and information science literature Moody's International Manual ,1996 The Routledge Handbook of Second Home Tourism and Mobilities C.
