Inert Cities Stephanie Donald, Christoph Lindner, 2019 We usually associate contemporary urban life with movement and speed. But what about those instances when the forms of mobility associated with globalized cities the flow of capital people labour and information freeze or decelerate. How can we assess the value of interruption in a city. What does valuing stillness mean in regards to the forward march of globalization. When does inertia presage decay and when does it promise immanence and rebirth. Bringing together original contributions by international specialists from the fields of architecture photography film sociology and cult

Inert Cities Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, Christoph Lindner, 2014-10-01 We usually associate contemporary urban life with movement and speed. But what about those instances when the forms of mobility associated with globalized cities the flow of capital people labour and information freeze or decelerate. How can we assess the value of interruption in a city. What does valuing stillness mean in regards to the forward march of globalization. When does inertia presage decay and when does it promise immanence and rebirth. Bringing together original contributions by international specialists from the fields of architecture photography film sociology and cultural analysis this cutting edge book considers the poetics and politics of inertia in cities ranging from Amsterdam Berlin Beirut and Paris to Beijing New York Sydney and Tokyo. Chapters explore what happens when photography film mixed media works architecture and design intervene in public spaces and urban communities to disrupt speed and growth both intellectually and or practically and question the degree to which mobility is aspirational or imaginary absolute or transient. Together they encourage a re assessment of what it means to be urban in an unevenly globalizing world to live in cities built around mythologies of perpetual progress. These new analyses of visual culture s strategic interruptions in global cities allow a more in depth understanding of the new forms of space experience and community that are emerging in today s rapidly transforming urban environments

A Companion to African Cinema Kenneth W. Harrow, Carmela Garritano, 2018-12-27 An authoritative guide to African cinema with contributions from a team of experts on the topic. A Companion to African Cinema offers an overview of critical approaches to African cinema. With contributions from an international panel of experts the Companion approaches the topic through the lens of cultural studies contemporary transformations in the world order the rise of globalization film production distribution and exhibition. This volume represents a new approach to African cinema criticism that once stressed the sociological and sociopolitical aspects of a film. The text explores a wide range of broad topics including cinematic economics video movies life in cinematic urban Africa reframing human rights as well as more targeted topics such as the linguistic domestication of Indian films in the Hausa language and the importance of female African filmmakers and their successes in overcoming limitations caused by gender inequality. The book also highlights a comparative perspective of African videoscapes of Southern Nigeria Ethiopia and C te d Ivoire and explores the rise of Nairobi based Female Filmmakers. This important resource Puts the focus on critical analyses that take into account manifestations of the political changes brought by neocolonialism and the waning of the cold war Explores Examines the urgent questions raised by commercial video about globalization Addresses issues such as funding the acquisition of adequate production technologies and apparatuses and the development of adequately trained actors Written for film students and scholars A Companion to African Cinema offers a look at new critical approaches to African cinema Art and the Politics of Visibility Zeena

There's No Place Like Home Stephanie Hemelryk Donald,2018-03-27 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2018 The Wizard of Oz brought many now iconic tropes into popular culture the yellow brick road ruby slippers and Oz But this book begins with Dorothy and her legacy as an archetypal touchstone in cinema for the child journeying far from home In There's No Place Like Home distinguished film scholar Stephanie Hemelryk Donald offers a fresh interpretation of the migrant child as a recurring figure in world cinema Displaced or placeless children and the idea of childhood itself are vehicles to examine migration and cosmopolitanism in films such as Le Ballon Rouge Little Moth and Le Havre Surveying fictional and documentary film from the post war years until today the author shows how the child is a guide to themes of place self and being in world cinema Globalization, Violence and the Visual Culture of Cities Christoph Lindner,2009-09-10 This book is the first interdisciplinary volume to examine the complex relationship between globalization violence and the visual culture of cities Arts, Culture and the Making of Global Cities Lily Kong,Ching Chia-ho,Chou Tsu-Lung,2015-01-30 While global cities have mostly been characterized as sites of intensive and extensive economic activity the quest for global city status also increasingly rests on the creative production and consumption of culture and the arts Arts Culture and the

New Mobilities Regimes in Art and Social Sciences Susanne Witzgall, Gerlinde Vogl,2016-04-29 New Mobilities Regimes analyses how global mobilities are changing the world of today and the role of political and economic power Bringing together essays by leading scholars and social scientists including Mimi Sheller and Bryant Diken with the work of well known artists and art theorists such as Jordan Crandall Ursula Bieman, Glyn Karamustafa and Dan Perjovschi this book is a unique document of the cross disciplinary mobility and power discourse The specific design integrating the text and art elements to create a singular dialogue makes for an exciting intellectual and aesthetic experience Illustrated by a range of studies which examine the regulation and structure of mobility such as the daily routines of teleworkers Ukrainian cleaners in Western Europe the mobility policies of global corporations and the impact of bicycle policies on public space New Mobilities Regimes emphasizes the routes and crossroads of migration flows as well as at the interaction of mobility and new spatial concepts The contributors are concerned with both the positive outcomes and the disappointments of the global mobilizations in modern lives This book is ground breaking in that it calls for the reassessment of the figurative arts in providing independent and insightful knowledge generating research on the nature of mobility and highlights the new appreciation of visual representations in sociology cultural geography and anthropology Megacity Mobility Culture BMW Group,2013-01-13

What determines how cities move on The ever increasing challenges to urban mobility come in many forms and approaches to address them range from the technically ingenious to attempts to change travel behaviour Key amongst factors essential to the success of any such approach is whether the urban environment proves to be fertile ground for the desired progress Another vital determinant of success is how well individual measures to engineer the transport system interact with other developments This leads to the principal subject of Megacity Mobility Culture the basic principles that determine the paths along which cities move This book demonstrates that the concept of mobility culture provides a framework for understanding the development of urban transport which transcends the boundaries between academic disciplines Based on a discussion of the diversity of megacities worldwide it provides help in navigating the complexity of megacity mobility culture Experts from megacities around the world each take the reader on a journey to their own city and its mobility culture giving a deeper insight into the unique evolutionary paths of mobility that these places have taken and what lies before them Whilst acknowledging the overwhelming diversity of cities worldwide the authors also identify common denominators behind the evolution of urban transport systems seven temperaments which are found in a unique mix in any given city defining the character of its mobility culture The Institute for Mobility Research is a research facility of the BMW Group It deals with future developments and challenges relating to mobility across all modes of transport with automobile being only one aspect among many Taking on an international perspective ifmo's activities focus on social science and sociopolitical economic and ecological issues but also extend to cultural questions related to the key challenges facing the future of mobility The work of the Institute is supported by an interdisciplinary board of renowned scientists and scholars and by representatives of BMW Deutsche Bahn Lufthansa MAN Siemens and The World Bank The Politics of the Visual Culture of Contemporary Cities Heinz Paetzold,1996 Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier,2012-05-02 Today is a new metropolitan age and for the first time ever more people live in cities than they do anywhere else As cities strengthen their international and cultural influence the global world is acted out most articulately in the world's urban hubs through its diverse cultures broad networks and innovative styles of governance Looking at the city through its internal dynamics the book examines how governance and cultural policy play out in a national and international framework Making a truly global contribution to the literature editors Isar and Anheier bring together a truly international and highly respected collection of scholars In doing so they skilfully steer debates beyond the city as an economic powerhouse to cover issues that fully comprehend a city's cultural dynamics and its impact on policy including alternative economies creativity migration diversity sustainability education and urban planning Innovative in its approach and content this book is ideal for students scholars and researchers interested in sociology urban studies cultural studies and public policy Making Cultural Cities in Asia June Wang,Tim Oakes,Yang Yang,2015-12-22 This book examines the vast and largely uncharted world of cultural creative city making in Asia It explores the establishment of policy models and practices against the backdrop of a globalizing world and considers the dynamic relationship between powerful actors and resources that impact Asian cities Making Cultural Cities in Asia approaches this dynamic process through the lens of assemblage how the policy models of cultural creative cities have been extracted from the flow of ideas and how re invented versions have been assembled territorialized and exported This approach reveals a spectrum between globally circulating ideals on the one hand and the place based contexts and contingencies on the other At one end of the spectrum this book features chapters on policy mobility in particular the political construction of the web of communication and the restructuring or rescaling of the state At the other end chapters examine the increasingly fragmented social forces their changing roles in the process and their negotiations alignments and resistances This book will be of interest to researchers and policy makers concerned with cultural and urban studies creative industries and Asian studies Global Cities, Local Streets Sharon Zukin,Philip Kasinitz,Xiangming Chen,2015-07-16

Global Cities Local Streets Everyday Diversity from New York to Shanghai a cutting edge text ethnography reports on the rapidly expanding field of global urban studies through a unique pairing of six teams of urban researchers from around the world The authors present shopping streets from each city New York Shanghai Amsterdam Berlin Toronto and Tokyo how they have changed over the years and how they illustrate globalization embedded in local communities This is an ideal addition to courses in urbanization consumption and globalization The book's companion website www.globalcitieslocalstreets.org has additional videos images and maps alongside a forum where students and instructors can post their own shopping street experiences Seeing the City Digitally Gillian Rose,2025-10-01 This book explores what's happening to ways of seeing urban spaces in the contemporary moment when so many of the technologies through which cities are visualised are digital Cities have always been pictured in many media and for many different purposes This edited collection explores how that picturing is changing in an era of digital visual culture Analogue visual technologies like film cameras were understood as creating some sort of a trace of the real city Digital visual technologies in contrast harvest and process digital data to create images that are constantly refreshed modified and circulated Each of the chapters in this volume examines a different example of how this processual visuality is reconfiguring the spatial and temporal organisation of urban life Cities in Transition Rita Schneider-Sliwa,2006-01-23 This book was written with the aim of showing that even in the era of globalization developments appearing in cities are not subject to almost unconditional global forces Rather universal forces are decisive eventualities in the process of urban restructuring often influencing its course and speed yet developments and particularities within a city strongly influence the course of events and the extent to which negative characteristics of globalization might occur Berlin Brussels Hanoi Ho Chi Minh City Hong Kong Jerusalem Johannesburg Moscow St Petersburg Sarajevo and Vienna Using these important cities the special relationship between global and local regional forces is analyzed The case studies were selected based on their political and cultural context and the fact that their social and political fabric was subject to major changes in the recent past How global processes manifest themselves locally depends to a great extent on how development processes and endogenic potentials are initiated locally in order to cope with the new global economic and societal conditions Other Cities, Other Worlds Andreas Huyssen, 2008-11-11 Collection of essays that examines the effects of globalization on non Western cities Art and the Politics of Visibility Zeena
