Street, 1878 Registration Form for Auditors and Consultants Ohio. Auditor of State, 1992* Registration and Student Records for Smaller Colleges. Bulletin, 1916 Benjamin F. Andrews, 1916 Two paramount reasons may be cited for the keeping of adequate and systematic records 1 The college owes it to students who may transfer to another institution or who may later refer to their alma mater for statements of their character and academic achievements and 2 No institution may be sure of itself of the honesty and consistency with which it maintains its standards of the trend of its academic policies unless all data bearing on these matters are immediately and fully recorded Although most large universities have developed registration systems entirely adequate to their needs many small colleges still tolerate very rudimentary systems of registration or have no system at all Rather they depend upon the memory of some overworked member of the faculty for knowledge of the standing of former students reinforced perhaps by a few cryptic marks preserved in old ledges or on loose and scattered sheets of paper Members of the Bureau of Education who visit such institutions are frequently asked to suggest practical methods for recording the desired information In view of the desirability of encouraging certain of the smaller institutions to keep proper records this bulletin provides a brief summary of the fundamental processes of the registrar's office. The material upon which it is based consisted of numerous printed forms submitted in response to inquiries from the Bureau of Education. The following are appended: 1. Outline of certain systems and 2. Miscellaneous forms. Contains 6 footnotes. Best copy available has been provided.

Technique of Procedure in Collegiate Registration. Bulletin, 1924 George T. Avery, 1924. It is a well known fact that while we have a considerable body of literature on public school administration, information on collegiate administration is meager. This is especially true concerning the problems of the registration office. In collecting the data used for this report, the institutions holding membership in the Association of Collegiate Registrars were requested in October 1922 to send their registration forms together with their methods of procedure to the writer. The purpose of this article is to study one phase of the registrar's work, that of the registration of the student. Contents include: 1. Inefficient methods still used 2. Points of agreement among registrars 3. Methods most commonly used 4. Analysis of typical plans 5. Some helpful suggestions 6. Recommended registration plan. Best copy available has been provided.
