claims are allowed The Children's Health Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2009 Pub L 111-3 CHIPRA intended to improve coordination between EGHPs and state Medicaid and SCHIP coverage for uninsured children plans caused EGHP and cafeteria plans to be amended. Michelle's Law Pub L 110-381 requires EGHPs to extend coverage to employees' dependent children who are covered as post secondary students if they have to interrupt their studies for health related reasons. More states allowed same sex couples to marry or have legally related domestic partnerships or civil unions with implications for work related benefit plans that cover spouses. The requirement of benefit parity between mental and physical illnesses was made permanent by EESA. The HITECH Act (Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health) part of ARRA was enacted to strengthen the privacy and security rules under HIPAA and to promote broader usage of electronic medical records. State Attorneys General now have the power to enforce HIPAA through suits in federal court. The Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act Pub L 111-2 was enacted. It increases the number of employment discrimination suits that can be brought by reversing the Supreme Court's decision that the timing rules for lawsuits begin when an allegedly discriminatory practice is adopted. The Supreme Court extended its string of pro arbitration cases by ruling in 14 Penn Plaza LLC v. Pyett 129 S Ct 1456 (2009) that a collective bargaining agreement clause that clearly obligates union members to arbitrate ADEA claims is enforceable. The Supreme Court held that federal labor law preempts a California law that forbade employers that receive state contracts or other funding to discuss union matters with employees. As long as employers avoid coercion, federal law seeks to promote wide open debate on labor issues. Chamber of Commerce v. Brown 128 S Ct 2408 (2008). Another Supreme Court ruling discussed allows unions to charge non-members who pay agency fees in lieu of joining the union amounts representing certain expenses of national litigation.
