No matter what anyone tells you, boat cooking IS different from cooking ashore. The space is smaller, there's no grocery store 5 minutes away, you have fewer prepared foods and electric appliances, and food storage is much different. Despite cruising different oceans, we Jan and Carolyn both faced the same challenges: eating well while having time to enjoy all the other great aspects of cruising. We love to snorkel, swim, kayak, explore, and just sit and admire the view. We learned with the cookbooks we both had aboard and wished for information that wasn't available like when Jan ended up with a frozen chicken complete with head and feet and no instructions on how to cut it up. When we couldn't get foods such as sour cream, English muffins, spaghetti sauce, or yogurt, we adapted recipes to make our own. Other times we experimented with substituting ingredients; maybe the result wasn't identical, but it was still tasty. We ended up with over 150 substitutions and dozens of "make it yourself" options. As we traded recipes and knowledge with each other, we realized we were compiling information that became The Boat Galley Cookbook. 800 recipes made from readily obtainable ingredients with hand utensils, including numerous choices to suit every taste, not just one cake, but 20-16 ways to prepare fish, 10 regional barbecue sauces, and so on. Step-by-step directions to give even non-cooks the confidence they can turn out tasty meals without prepared foods. Detailed instructions on unfamiliar things like making yogurt and bread, grilling virtually every food imaginable, preparing and cooking freshly caught fish and seafood, cutting up and boning meat, cooking in a Thermos, and baking on the stove top, as well as lots of tips on how to do things more easily in a tiny moving kitchen. All this in an easy-to-navigate format, including side tabs on the Contents to help you find your way and extensive cross reference lists at the end of each chapter. Quick Reference Lists provide idea starters, suggestions of included recipes for such categories as Mexican, Asian, and Potluck. The Boat Galley Cookbook is designed to help you every step of the way. We hope it becomes a trusted reference on your boat and a source of many enjoyable meals.

Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E. Abarca, 2006

Literally, chilaquiles are a breakfast I grew up eating: fried corn tortillas with tomato chile sauce. Symbolically, they are the culinary metaphor for how working-class women speak with the seasoning of their food. From the Introduction: Through the ages and across cultures, women have carved out a domain in which their cooking allowed them to express themselves, strengthen family relationships, and create a world of shared meanings with other women. In Voices in the Kitchen, Meredith E.

Abarca features the voices of her mother and several other family members and friends seated at their kitchen tables to share the grassroots world view of these working class Mexican and Mexican American women. In the kitchen Abarca demonstrates women assert their own sazón seasoning not only in their cooking but also in their lives. Through a series of oral histories or charlas culinarias culinary chats the women interviewed address issues of space, sensual knowledge, artistic and narrative expression and cultural and social change. From her mother's breakfast chilaquiles to the most elaborate traditional dinner these women share their lives as they share their savory symbolic and theoretical meanings of food. The charlas culinarias represent spoken personal narratives, testimonial autobiography and a form of culinary memoir one created by the cooks as writers who speak from their kitchen space. Abarca then looks at writers as cooks to add an additional dimension to the understanding of women's power to define themselves. Voices in the Kitchen joins the extensive culinary research of the last decade in exploring the importance of the knowledge found in the practical, concrete and temporal aspects of the ordinary practice of everyday cooking.
