Georgetown Paper Mill Job Openings:

The Color of Work Timothy J. Minchin, 2003-01-14 Histories of the civil rights movement have generally overlooked the battle to integrate the South's major industries. The paper industry which has played an important role in the southern economy since the 1930s has been particularly neglected. Using previously untapped legal records and oral history interviews, Timothy Minchin provides the first in-depth account of the struggle to integrate southern paper mills. Minchin describes how jobs in the southern paper industry were strictly segregated prior to the 1960s, with black workers confined to low-paying menial positions. All work literally had a color: every job was racially designated and workers were represented by segregated local unions. Though black workers tried to protest workplace inequities through their unions, their efforts were largely ineffective until passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act opened the way for scores of antidiscrimination lawsuits. Even then, however, resistance from executives and white workers ensured that the fight to integrate the paper industry was a long and difficult one.

Hubert Platt Allen Platt, 2019-05-15 Webster's Dictionary lists the term showman as a notably spectacular, dramatic or effective performer. In the art of drag racing, Hubert Platt checked all boxes. Known as the Georgia Shaker, Platt cut his motoring teeth on the long straightaways and twisty back roads of South Carolina while bootlegging moonshine. After a run in with the law in 1958, Platt transferred his driving skills from illegal activity to sanctioned drag racing and began one of the most dominant runs in drag racing history until his retirement in 1977. After stints in 1957, 1938 and 1962 Chevrolets, Platt's next ride was a Z11 Impala which carried his first Georgia Shaker moniker. Once Chevrolet pulled out of sanctioned racing, Platt found a new home with Ford for 1964 and remained there until he hung up his helmet. Some of the cars he campaigned became icons in their own right. His factory-backed and personal machines included a 1963 Z11 Impala, 1964 Thunderbolt, 1965 Falcon, 1966 Mustang, Funny Car, 1967 Fairlane 427, 1968 1/2 Cobra Jet, 1969 CJ Mustang, 1970 427 SOHC Mustang and 1970 Boss 429 Maverick A

1986 NHRA Hall of Fame member Platt's lasting legacy on the sport can't be denied. Whether he was launching his Falcon with the door open conducting a Ford Drag Team seminar or posting low ET at the 1967 US Nationals in his Fairlane Platt's imprint on drag racing was all encompassing. His son and biggest fan Allen Platt shares his dad's iconic career in Hubert Platt Fast Fords of the Georgia Shaker     Decision A South Carolina Unemployment Compensation Commission, 1948

Flourishing in Emerging Adulthood Laura M. Padilla-Walker, Larry J. Nelson, 2017. Flourishing in Emerging Adulthood highlights the third decade of life as a time in which individuals have diverse opportunities for positive development. There is mounting evidence that this time period at least for a significant majority is a unique developmental period in which positive development is fostered. Dr. Lene Arnett Jensen highlights the importance of this work in an engaging foreword and chapters are written by leading scholars in diverse disciplines who address various aspects of flourishing. They discuss multiple aspects of positive development including how young people flourish in key areas of emerging adulthood e.g. identity, love, work, worldviews, the various unique opportunities afforded to young people to flourish, how flourishing might look different around the world and how flourishing can occur in the face of challenge. Most chapters are accompanied by first person essays written by a range of emerging adults who exemplify the aspect of flourishing denoted in that chapter and make note of how choices and experiences have helped them transition to adulthood. Taken together this innovative collection provides rich evidence and examples of how young people are flourishing as a group and as individuals in a variety of settings and circumstances. This unique resource will be useful to students, faculty, professionals, clinicians and university personnel who work with young adults or who study development during emerging adulthood     Paper Industry and Paper World, 1948
