Fassil Demissie

Home Language Paper2 Final Exam 2014:

Ethiopians in an Age of Migration Fassil Demissie, 2018-10-11 The migration of Ethiopians across international borders is a recent phenomenon because of the limited integration of the country and society to the global economy. Since it was never colonized aside from the Italian occupation of 1936-1941, Ethiopia's economy and society were not directly impacted by the ebb and flow of the global economy and thus never generated international migration. Beginning in the 1970s due to factors such as famine, rural poverty, civil war, and political repression, an unprecedented number of Ethiopian migrants began to leave their country in search of better, more secure lives. Today, this diaspora constitutes a distinctive community dispersed across the world but bound by a common feeling of collectiveness and a shared history of the homeland. The contributors to this volume draw their work from a wide variety of interdisciplinary fields and provide new critical insight on Ethiopian migrants and their diaspora communities. What has emerged from these scholarly works is the recognition that the Ethiopian diaspora, although separated by oceans and nations by politics, ethnicity, class, gender, and age, are carving out a social and material world born out of their particular circumstances both here and there. This book was originally published as a special issue of African and Black Diaspora: An International Journal. The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bowern, 2023 This book is a wide-ranging reference work covering the more than 550 Indigenous languages of Australia. The chapters in the book explore typology and classification, linguistic structures, sociolinguistics, and language variation and language in the community. The final part offers sketches of a selection of languages, subgroups, and families. The Multilingual City Lid King, Lorna Carson, 2016-01-26 This book is an exploration of the vitality of multilingualism and of its critical importance in and for contemporary cities. It examines how the city has emerged as a key driver of the multilingual future, a concentration of different, changing cultures which somehow manage to create a new identity. The book uses the recent LUCIDE multilingual city reports as a basis for discussion and analysis and deals with both societal and individual multilingualism in a way that draws on the full range of their historical, contemporary, visual, audible, psychological, educational, and policy-oriented aspects. The book will be of interest to students and researchers of multilingualism, migration studies, European studies, anthropology, sociology, and urbanism. Knowledge-building Karl Maton, Susan Hood, Suellen Shay, 2015-10-08 Education and knowledge have never been more important to society, yet research is segmented by approach, methodology, or topic. Legitimation Code Theory (LCT) extends and integrates insights from Pierre Bourdieu and Basil Bernstein to offer a framework for research and practice that overcomes segmentalism. This book shows how LCT can be used to build knowledge about education and society. Comprising original papers by an international and multidisciplinary group of scholars, Knowledge-building offers the first primer in this fast-growing approach. Through case studies of major research projects, Part I provides practical insights into how LCT can be used to build knowledge by enabling dialogue between theory and data in qualitative research, bringing together quantitative and qualitative methodologies in mixed methods research relating theory and practice in praxis conducting interdisciplinary studies with systemic functional linguistics Part II offers a series of studies of pressing issues facing knowledge building in education and beyond encompassing diverse subject areas including physics English cultural studies music and design educational sites schooling vocational education and higher education practices of research curriculum pedagogy and assessment both education and informal learning contexts such as museums and masonic lodges Carefully sequenced and interrelated these chapters form a coherent collection that gives a unique insight into one of the most thought provoking and innovative ways of building knowledge about knowledge building in education and society to have emerged this century This book is essential reading for all serious students and scholars of education sociology and linguistics
