Assistive Technologies and Computer Access for Motor Disabilities Kouroupetroglou, Georgios, 2013-08-31 Individuals with disabilities that impede their range of motion often have difficulty accessing technologies. With the use of computer based assistive technology devices, tools and services can be used to maintain and improve the functional capabilities of motor disabilities. Assistive Technologies and Computer Access for Motor Disabilities investigates solutions to the difficulties of impaired technology access by highlighting the principles, methods and advanced technological solutions for those with motor impairments. This reference source is beneficial to academia, industry and various professionals in disciplines such as rehabilitation science, occupational therapy, human computer interface development, ergonomics and teaching in inclusive and special education. This publication is integrated with its pair book, Disability Informatics and Web Accessibility for Motor Limitations.

Humanitarian NGOs, (In)Security and Identity

Andrea Schneiker, 2016-03-09 Increasingly, humanitarian NGOs operate in the context of armed conflicts where the security risks are higher than in contexts of natural disaster. Working in Afghanistan, Somalia, Sudan, South Sudan, Pakistan and Sri Lanka is particularly dangerous for humanitarians. This existential threat affects the physical existence of aid workers and the implementation of humanitarian programs and the core beliefs of humanitarians and the underlying principles of humanitarian action. For NGOs, it is difficult to accept that they are attacked despite their good intentions, sometimes even by the very communities they seek to help. For these reasons, humanitarian NGOs have to change their approaches to security by not only adapting their policies, procedures and structures to the changing environment but also reviewing the underlying principles of their work. This book contributes to debates by demonstrating how issues of security affect humanitarian NGOs and the humanitarian identity, situating the structural changes within the humanitarian NGO community in the context of conflict aid governance and explains how non-state actors establish their own governance structures independent from state-sponsored solutions and contributes to the emerging literature on the redefinition of the concept of epistemic communities.

The European Union and Everyday Statebuilding Ramadan Ilazi, 2023-09-11 This book examines the European Union's everyday statebuilding practices using the case of Kosovo as an example of how it uses informal practices to influence local actors. The objective of the book is to explain how the EU operates as a statebuilding actor in the everyday context outside its zone of comfort. It illustrates the EU's dynamics of dealing with the local actors through everyday practices which are understood as informal means or practices of interaction with the local actors in the framework of three key issues of relevance for statebuilding process for the EU: rule of law, reforming public administration and resolving bilateral disputes. The book shows how the EU utilizes everyday practices to influence decision making process on the part of the government in order to ensure a particular outcome, be that diffusing a norm or promoting its own interests. In doing so, it gives an important insight into what these interests actually are in practice. In providing an insight into how the EU works as a statebuilding actor in practice in the everyday context it unmasks factors that facilitate the EU's influence on other countries that it considers to be failing such as Kosovo in order to secure desired behaviours decisions and actions on the part of the local government It also unmasks the EU's commitment to being an ethical actor by unearthing practices that undermine local agency the practical intentions of the EU's statebuilding intervention approaches and the reality that hides behind the facade of public statements on the part of the EU and the local government In doing so the book provides a new way to look at the EU as a statebuilding actor This book will be of interest to students of statebuilding EU policy Balkan politics and International Relations Envoy 100 ,1983 Electronic Documents ,1995 Envoy 100, EnvoyPost : Mailing List User Guide Telecom Canada,1986 Envoy 100 ,1986 Envoy 100 : Script Manual Telecom Canada,1986
