Improving Foreign Language Teaching Ernesto Macaro, Suzanne Graham, Robert Woore, 2015-09-16 Improving Foreign Language Teaching provides teachers and teacher trainers with a research based structure for the effective teaching and assessment of second languages. As well as outlining a model for teacher development the book identifies and exemplifies eight key principles for effective language learning which can be used to guide curriculum design and decisions about classroom pedagogy. Improving Foreign Language Teaching also presents practical activities related materials and guidance on how student progress can be monitored and recorded. Based on the research of the authors and other international experts together with the work of a consortium established by the authors and teachers in a range of secondary schools the book focusses on the development of language skills and communicative competence. It also proposes an assessment system which better reflects how learners progress in language learning than current models. Taking as its starting point the challenge of a curriculum in flux and complex pedagogical approaches this book offers clear research informed guidance for effective planning teaching and learning. It will be essential reading for all those concerned with the improvement of language learning and teaching in the secondary classroom.

40 Ways to Diversify the History Curriculum Elena Stevens, 2022-07-14 In writing this book Elena Stevens' aim is to respond to calls for a more diverse decolonised curriculum calls which have become more insistent following the reinvigoration of the Black Lives Matter movement the MeToo movement and other landmark events. Highlighting the lived experiences of women the working classes and BAME and LGBTQ communities in particular 40 Ways to Diversify the History Curriculum draws upon a wide range of personal stories to exemplify significant historical moments and shed new light on topics that have traditionally been taught through narrower lenses. The book serves as a resource bank for teachers wishing to enliven and diversify history lessons at Key Stages 2 3 GCSE A level and beyond. Elena helpfully opens with a discussion of the theoretical historiographical developments that lay behind calls to diversify the curriculum and to accompany each of the 40 historical case studies she provides ideas and activities for translating the case studies into lesson plans and enquiries. Furthermore Elena also guides teachers in shaping new enquiries from scratch. Suitable for teachers of secondary school and Key Stage 2 history.
