Jane Marie Souza, Tara A. Rose, 2023-11-09 In this second volume of the successful Exemplars of Assessment in Higher Education editors Souza and Rose share examples of assessment practice from over fifteen distinct and diverse Higher Education Institutions including international contributions Building upon the work of the first volume the case studies in this book reflect the changes in assessment and higher education in the post Covid education environment The institutions that appear in this book were chosen for having an effective assessment approach in one or more of the following areas career readiness distance education diversity equity and inclusion or general education Each part of the book discusses one of these four areas with chapters that feature real life examples from the educators who teach at the college or university Featuring a Foreword by AAC U President Lynn Pasquerella the work highlighted in this book is also aligned with AAC U s Valid Assessment of Learning in Undergraduate Education VALUE initiative to help educators make the best decisions about measuring student learning This book is ideal for university educators and assessment practitioners looking to diversify and enhance their assessment practices A Co Publication with AAC U International Practices to Promote Budget Literacy Harika Masud, Helene Pfeil, Sanjay Agarwal, Alfredo Gonzalez Briseno, 2017-08-09 Budget literacy is defined as the ability to read decipher and understand public budgets to enable and enhance meaningful citizen participation in the budget process It is comprised of two main parts i a technical understanding of public budgets including familiarity with government spending tax rates and public debt and ii the ability to engage in the budget process comprising of practical knowledge on day to day issues as well as an elementary understanding of the economic social and political implications of budget policies the stakeholders involved and when and how to provide inputs during the annual budget cycle Given that no international standards or guidelines have been established for budget literacy education to date this book seeks to address this gap by taking stock of illustrative initiatives promoting budget literacy for youth in selected countries The underlying presumption is that when supply side actors in the budget process governments simplify and disseminate budget information for demand side actors citizens this information will then be used by citizens to provide feedback on the budget However since citizens are often insufficiently informed about public budgets to constructively participate in budget processes one way to empower them and to remedy the problem of budget illiteracy is to provide budget literacy education in schools to youth helping them evolve into civic minded adults with the essential knowledge needed for analyzing their government s fiscal policy objectives and measures and the confidence and sense of social responsibility to participate in the oversight of public resources This book elaborates on approaches learning outcomes pedagogical strategies and assessment approaches for budget literacy education and presents lessons that are relevant for the development improvement or scaling up of budget literacy initiatives

Exemplars of Assessment in Higher Education Jane Marie Souza,Tara A. Rose,2023-07-03 Co published with While assessment may feel to constituents like an activity of accountability simply for accreditors it is most appropriate to approach assessment as an activity of accountability for students Assessment results that improve institutional effectiveness heighten student learning and better align resources serve to make institutions stronger for the benefit of their students and those results also serve the institution or program well during the holistic evaluation required through accreditation from the foreword by Heather Perfetti President of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education Colleges and universities struggle to understand precisely what is being asked for by accreditors and this book answers that question by sharing examples of success reported by schools specifically recommended by accreditors This compendium gathers examples of assessment practice in twenty four higher education institutions twenty three in the U S and one in Australia All institutions represented in this book were suggested by their accreditor as having an effective assessment approach in one or more of the following assessment focused areas assessment in the disciplines co curricular course program institutional assessment equity and inclusion general education online learning program review scholarship of teaching and learning student learning or technology These examples recommended by accrediting agencies makes this a unique contribution to the assessment literature The book is organized in four parts Part One is focused on student learning and assessment and includes ten chapters The primary focus for Part Two is student learning assessment from a disciplinary perspective and includes four chapters Part Three has a faculty engagement and assessment focus and Part Four includes four chapters on institutional effectiveness and assessment with a focus on strategic planning This book is a publication of the Association for the Assessment of Learning in Higher Education AALHE an organization of practitioners interested in using effective assessment practice to document and improve student learning

The Working Classroom Matt Bromley,Andy Griffith,2023-11-08 Schools do amazing work to support children from disadvantaged backgrounds But this book will enable them to do more Disadvantage comes in many forms but cultural poverty where some students have relative knowledge gaps compared with their more affluent peers can be addressed successfully by schools The Working Classroom explores how working class students are disadvantaged by a flawed system and what schools can do to close the gap Written by two experienced authors with a deep understanding of the challenges that poverty and low aspiration can bring and a passion for social justice The Working Classroom examines how and why we must seek systemic changes The book focuses on actions within the control of teachers and school leaders which will ensure that we create a socially just education system one that builds on the rich heritage of the working class rather than seeing their background as a weakness It offers practical ways for students and families to build on the best of working class culture whilst also empowering teachers students and parents to change the system The Working Classroom provides teachers with useful methods to improve the cultural capital of students from disadvantaged backgrounds that can be easily replicated and implemented in their own setting Backed up by practical case studies that have a proven impact in schools with high levels of deprivation this book will enable teachers to audit their current provision and encourage them to adopt new systems and practices so that they and the wider school will have a greater impact on the lives of working class students and their families Suitable for both teachers and leaders in a secondary school or sixth form college setting who seek to support social change in education and anyone in the corporate or non education world who wants to practice effective altruism or philanthropy Political Economy and Sociolinguistics David Block, 2018-02-08 Shortlisted for the BAAL Book Prize 2019 This book explores how political economy intersects with sociolinguistics specifically how neoliberalism inequality and social class mediate language in society issues After the preface in which the author sets the scene for the content of the book Chapter 1 is an extensive though selective review of sociolinguistics research which has been framed as political economic in orientation The chapter concludes that such research generally contains little in the way of thorough and in depth coverage of the key ideas and conceptual frameworks said to undergird it With this consideration in mind Chapters 2 3 and 4 are organised around in depth discussions of respectively political economy as a general disciplinary frame neoliberalism as the variegated variety of capitalism dominant in the world today and stratification inequality and social class as phenomena intrinsic to capitalism which in the neoliberal era have come to the fore as key issues Drawing directly on the background provide in Chapters 2 4 Chapters 5 and 6 explore two distinct political economy informed lines of research on the one hand the neoliberal citizen and on the other hand discursive class warfare The book ends with an epilogue addressing issues arising around political economy in sociolinguistics Sustainable and Resilient Global Practices Torben Juul Andersen, 2024-07-19 The chapters presented here by global scholars fill the void in current knowledge of how to generate effective strategic adaptation in times of abrupt environmental changes generating important leads for forthcoming scholarship efforts for the benefit of business and society
