Howard Greenberg Collection:

Howard Greenberg Collection Howard Greenberg, Sam Stourdze, Agnès Sire, 2014 Howard Greenberg has been a gallery owner for more than 30 years and is considered one of the pillars of the New York photographic scene. While he is well known as a dealer his private passion as a collector is now revealed for the first time to a larger public. The Howard Greenberg Collection which has been carefully assembled over decades comprises around 500 photographs that distinguish themselves by their superb print quality. This unique collection reflects Greenberg's diverse fields of interest ranging from the modern aesthetic approach of the 1920s and 1930s with the works of Edward Steichen, Edward Weston and the Czech School to contemporary photographers such as Minor White, Harry Callahan and Robert Frank. A large part of the collection explores humanist photography represented among others by Lewis Hine, David Seymour and Farm Security Administration photographers like Walker Evans and Dorothea Lange, witnesses of the Great Depression of the 1930s. More than anything, Greenberg's collection illustrates New York's enormous influence on twentieth century photography, dynamic architecture and urban life as seen in the photographs of Berenice Abbott, Weegee and Lee Friedlander. Viewpoints Kristen Gresh, 2019-08-08 Drawing on the unparalleled Howard Greenberg Collection, Viewpoints presents some seventy five iconic images that have come to define their times. Over the course of the twentieth century, photography evolved as an art form while serving as an eyewitness to social, cultural and political change. This book presents some seventy five iconic images that came to define their times and explores the stories behind the moments they recorded and the photographers who captured them. Among these beautifully reproduced images, many from unique vintage prints, are powerful visual testimonies of Depression era America, politically engaged street photography, definitive celebrity portraits, celebrations of the performing arts, harrowing visions of war and compelling depictions of the Civil Rights movement. Drawing on the unparalleled Howard Greenberg Collection recently acquired by the Museum of Fine Arts Boston, Viewpoints invites us to take a fresh look at celebrated photographs by such masters of the medium as Berenice Abbott, Margaret Bourke White, Robert Capa, Henri Cartier Bresson, Walker Evans, Robert Frank, Dorothea Lange, Gordon Parks and Edward Steichen.

Vivian Maier Pamela Bannos, 2018-09-19 Many know her as the reclusive Chicago nanny who wandered the city for decades constantly snapping photographs which were unseen until they were discovered in a seemingly abandoned storage locker. When the news broke that Maier had recently died and had no surviving relatives, Maier shot to stardom almost overnight. Bannos contrasts Maier's life, which has been created mostly by the men who have profited from her work. Maier was extremely conscientious about how her work was developed, printed, and cropped, even though she also made a clear choice never to display it.

Here in Double Click, author Carol Kino provides us with a fascinating window into the golden era of magazine photography and the first young women's publications bringing these two brilliant women and their remarkable accomplishments to vivid life.

Modern Look Mason Klein, 2020-05-05 A fascinating exploration of how photography, graphic design, and popular magazines converged to transform American visual culture at mid century. This dynamic study examines the intersection of modernist photography and American commercial graphic design between 1930 and 1960. Avant garde strategies in photography and design reached the United States via European migrants, including Bauhaus artists forced out of Nazi Germany. The unmistakable aesthetic made popular by such magazines as Harper's Bazaar and Vogue, whose art directors, Alexey Brodovitch and Alexander Liberman, were both immigrants and accomplished photographers, emerged from a distinctly American combination of innovation, inclusiveness, and pragmatism. Beautifully illustrated with more than 150 revolutionary photographs, layouts, and cover designs, Modern Look considers the connections and mutual influences of such designers and photographers as Richard Avedon, Lillian Bassman, Herbert Bayer, Robert Frank, Lisette Model, Gordon Parks, Irving Penn, Cipe Pineles, and Paul Rand. Essays draw a lineage from European experimental design to innovative work in American magazine design at mid century and offer insights into the role of gender in fashion photography and political activism in the mass media.

Ribalta, Museu d'Art Contemporani (Barcelona, Spain), Museu Coleção Berardo, 2008 This book focuses from a chronological perspective on photography as a tool for a new visuality and the rupture of the role of the spectator. photographic exhibitions from 1928 to 1955 from the spaces designed by Lissitzky to The Family of Man, the trajectory of utopian architectural photographic space and from post Revolutionary Russia to America during the Cold War. Štrasser, Funke aux photographes de la FSA, Lange, Evans en passant par les humanistes Hine, Seymour ou les moins américains Callahan, Frank, Winogrand c'est une histoire personnelle de la photographie qui est racontée. Parmi les sélections sont présentés des tirages d'une qualité exceptionnelle et des photographes majeurs parfois moins connus comme Roy DeCarava, Leon, Levinstein ou Ralph Eugene, Yard. 00 Une sélection d'environ 140 images est présente dans cette publication avec un dialogue entre Howard Greenberg et Sam Stourdzé. Street Seen, Lisa Hostetler, 2009 This in-depth and generously illustrated look at six postwar photographers along with a selection of their predecessors and contemporaries captures a unique and pivotal moment in American photographic history. World War II and its aftermath ushered in a new era of artistic expression. Abstract Expressionism, film noir, Beat poetry, and the New Journalism are often considered responses to war's shocking realities. Creative photographers responded to the same situation with images that broke the rules of conventional photographic technique. Street Seen, a companion volume to an exhibition, highlights six photographers who were prominent during and immediately following the war. Lisette Model's unflinching look at the urban environment, Louis Faurer's portraits of eccentrics in Times Square, Ted Croner's haunting night images, Saul Leiter's evocative glimpses of daily life, William Klein's graphic confrontational style, and Robert Frank's documentation of American ideals gone awry. These and other beautifully reproduced photographs communicate the emotional resonance of everyday life in postwar America. An essay by Lisa Hostetler explores the aesthetic revolution that took place after the war and reveals the principles of spontaneity and subjective interpretation that guided these photographers as they sought to make sense of new realities. A timeline, brief biographies, and bibliography are also included in this valuable compilation of the mid-century's most influential photography.

The New York School Jane Livingston, 1992 The New York School of Photography refers to a loosely defined group of photographers who lived and worked in New York City during the 1930s, 40s, and 50s. Through a stunning selection of 250 photographs along with quotes from the photographers, the author shows the New York School's distinctive style. Livingston is associate director and chief curator of the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, D.C. Open City Kerry Brougher, Russell Ferguson, 2001 Published to accompany an exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art, Oxford, 6 May–15 July 2001. *Report of the Secretary of State for Canada for the Year Ending ...
