

Background: Sec. 111 Mandatory Medicare Secondary Payer Reporting

- The MMSEA broadly defines an RRE, and can be paraphrased from the current version of the CMS User's Guide as
"any entity which issues a check over $5,000 to compromise a liability claim/lawsuit brought by an injured MB."
- This includes self-insured entities and those that pay the plaintiff directly within a deductible or self-insured retention program.
- Because of the burdensome IT requirements, and large potential fines, this definition could create many problems for hospitals and other business entities that may not even be aware of the new reporting requirement.
