Exam Papers Criminology 2013:

Forensic Document Examination in the 21st Century Miriam Angel, Jan Seaman Kelly, 2020-12-21 Forensic Document Examination in the 21st Century covers the latest technology and techniques providing a complete resource on contemporary issues and methods in forensic document examination. Forensic document examiners provide their findings as expert testimony in court. Due to rapid changes in technology including digital documents, printing and photocopying capabilities, and more, there is a great need for this up-to-date reference. The examination of documents can include comparison of handwriting or hand printing, detection of alterations or photocopies, and computer manipulation, restoration, or decipherment of erased and obliterated writing. Visualization of latent impressions, the identification of printing processes, and differentiation of inks. Computer-generated documents are prevalent, and electronically captured signatures are becoming more widespread, meaning the knowledge of advances in technology and adoption of new validated techniques and methods of document examination are crucial to the reliability of forensic opinions. Forensic Document Examination in the 21st Century includes the latest research on the subject and with contributions from leading experts on their various areas of expertise. The book will be a welcome addition to the literature and support the foundational basis for methods and procedures for use in expert testimony in court, serving as a resource for forensic document examiners, trainees, and those in the criminal and legal communities who use the services of expert document examiners and witnesses.

Handbook of Recidivism Risk / Needs Assessment Tools Jay P. Singh, Daryl G. Kroner, J. Stephen Wormith, Sarah L. Desmarais, Zachary Hamilton, 2018-02-05 Provides comprehensive coverage on recidivism risk needs assessment tools. Correctional and healthcare professionals around the world utilize structured instruments referred to as risk needs assessment tools to predict the likelihood that an offender will recidivate. Such tools have been found to provide accurate and reliable evaluations and are widely used to assess, manage, and monitor offenders both institutionally as well as in the community. By identifying offenders in need of different levels of intervention, examining causal risk factors, and individualizing case management plans, risk needs assessment tools have proven invaluable in addressing the public health issue of recidivism. Recidivism Risk Needs Assessment Tools brings together the developers of the most commonly used risk needs assessment tools to provide a comprehensive overview of their development, peer-reviewed research literature, and practical application. Written by the leading professionals in the field of risk needs assessment, the book provides chapters on Recidivism Risk Assessment in the 21st Century, Performance of Recidivism Risk Assessment Instruments in Correctional Settings, Correctional Offender Management Profiles for Alternative Sanctions, COMPAS the Federal Post Conviction Risk Assessment Instrument, the Inventory of Offender Risks, Needs and Strengths (IORS), the Level of Service LS Instruments, the Ohio Risk Assessment System (ORAS), the Self Appraisal Questionnaire (SAQ), the Service Planning Instrument (SPI), the Static Risk Offender Needs Guide Revised (STRONG-R), the Offender Group Reconviction Scale (OGRS), the Forensic Operationalized Therapy Risk Guide Revised, and the Offender Group Reconviction Scale (OGRS).

Evaluation System FOTRES the RisCanvi and more Systematically identifies currently validated recidivism risk needs assessment tools Reviews research on recidivism risk needs assessment tools used internationally Each chapter presents sufficient detail to decide whether a given recidivism risk needs assessment tool is right for your practice Recidivism Risk Needs Assessment Tools is ideal for correctional probation and parole and behavioral health professionals Direct Action

Use of Victim Impact Statements in Sentencing for Sexual Offences Rhiannon Davies,Lorana Bartels,2021-03-17
Drawing on extensive research from Australia this book examines the experiences of sexual offence victims who submit a victim impact statement Victim impact statements are used in sentencing to outline the harm caused to victims There has been little research on the impact statement experiences of sexual offence victims This book fills this gap examining the perspectives of six adult female victims and 15 justice professionals in Australia This is supplemented by analysis of 100 sentencing remarks revealing how courts use such statements in practice This book examines victims experiences of preparing and submitting statements justice professionals experiences of working with victims to submit statements and the judicial use of impact statements in sentencing It identifies an overarching lack of clarity around the purpose of impact statements which affects the information that can be included and the way they can be used by the court It consequently explore issues associated with balancing the expressive and instrumental purposes of such statements and the challenges in communication between professionals and victims of crime The findings highlight several issues with the operation of impact statement regimes Based on these findings the book makes recommendations to clarify such regimes to improve communication between justice professionals and victims of crime and to enhance the therapeutic goals of such statements An accessible and compelling read this book is essential reading for all those engaged with victimology sentencing and sexual violence Criminology & Penology Abstracts ,1983 An Introduction to American Policing Dennis J.

Pepinsky,Richard Quinney,1991 Criminology has traditionally been a military science a science of war The criminal element is the enemy Repression and restraint are the primary tools of criminal justice and criminologists study how to make those tools effective in the war on crime We are beginning to realize that this is a war against ourselves and one that we are losing Our inability to make peace with crime and criminals is reflected in the paucity of our daily personal relations where we live by domination and discipline where forgiveness and mercy are seen as naive surrender to victimization The essays in this volume propose peacemaking as an effective alternative to the war on crime They range from studies of the intellectual roots of the peacemaking tradition to concrete examples of peacemaking in the community with special attention to feminist peacemaking traditions and women's experience
