Literature in a Cross-Cultural Context Szu-Wen Kung,2021-03-01 Translation of Contemporary Taiwan Literature in a Cross Cultural Context explores the social cultural and linguistic implications of translation of Taiwan literature for transnational cultural exchange It demonstrates principally how asymmetrical cultural relationships mediation processes and ideologies of the translation players constitute the culture specific translation activity as a highly contested site where translation can reconstruct and rewrite the literature and the culture it represents Four main theoretical themes are explored in relation to such translation activity sociological studies cultural and rewriting studies English as a lingua franca and social and performative linguistics These offer insightful perspectives on the translation as an interpretive encounter between not only two languages two cultural systems and assumptions taking place but also among various translation mediators This book will be useful to scholars and students working on translation and cultural studies China Taiwan literature studies and literature studies in cross cultural contexts
