

Preparing a Journal Article Critique

I. What is an article critique?

- A critical analysis of a study published in a peer-reviewed journal.

II. How do I format an article review?

- Format and organization of the critique varies according to the professor's preference. Review the assignment description in the course syllabus or ask the professor for formatting guidelines.

III. What does an article critique include?

A) A citation of the reviewed article in APA format

Example:

Mithaug, D. E. & Mar, D. K. (1980). The relation between choosing and working prevocational tasks in two severely retarded young adults. Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis, 13, 177-182.

B) A one-paragraph summary of the article

- Fewer than 200 words
- Briefly describe experimental question (1 sentence)
- Provide concise description of the methods used (2-6 sentences)
- Discuss results/findings (2 sentences)

C) A description of the study's participants

- Include number of participants/sample size/number of groups used
- Provide diagnoses or pertinent characteristics of participants
- Briefly describe participant selection & assignment to condition(s)

D) Identification and description of the relationship between the independent and dependent variables within the study

- Define independent variable(s)
- Define dependent variable(s)
- Discuss if a functional relationship exists between the independent and dependent variables
- Discuss possible confounding variables within the study

E) A description of the research design

- Identify the design as a group- or single-subject study
- Describe the experimental design (e.g., ABA reversal design, alternating treatment design, or multiple baseline design)

F) Article strengths & weaknesses (Helpful questions to ask yourself while evaluating the article's 4 main sections)
