

The book cover features a dynamic, abstract design. A large, swirling vortex of white and light blue lines dominates the center, creating a sense of motion and depth. Surrounding this central vortex are several red, 3D rectangular blocks arranged in a way that suggests they are being pulled into or orbiting the center. The blocks have a grid-like texture on their top surfaces. The overall color palette is primarily white and light blue for the background, with vibrant red for the blocks and a dark blue for the Pearson logo.
