Reading Between the Lines Marion E. Neville Lynch, 2005 Reading Between the Lines A Balanced Approach to Literacy is a handbook that will enhance your ability to become a more effective reader. It teaches how to read interactively to monitor emotional responses to text and to think outside of the box for a comprehensive interpretation of text. Reading Between the Lines also suggests creative ways to link reading and writing effectively to produce summaries, critiques and syntheses.

Amy Tan Harold Bloom, 2014-05-14 Presents a collection of critical essays about the works of Amy Tan.

Reading Amy Tan Lan Dong, 2009-06-08 This essential discussion of Amy Tan's life and works is a necessity for high school students and an enriching supplement for book club members. A tour de force in Asian American writing, Amy Tan has created works that are essential to high school and undergraduate literature classes and are often book club selections. Reading Amy Tan is a handy resource that offers both groups plot summaries of five of Tan's novels as well as character and thematic analysis. The handbook also provides an overview of Tan's life and discusses how she emerged onto the scene as a novelist. Tan's typical themes including Asian American issues and mother-daughter relationships are examined in relation to today's current events and pop culture. Readers will also discover how and where they can find Tan on the Internet and how the media has received her works. The What Do I Read Next chapter will help readers find other authors and works that deal with similar subjects. This handbook is an indispensable tool for both high school and public libraries.

Literature Education in the Asia-Pacific Chin Ee Loh, Suzanne S. Choo, Catherine Beavis, 2018-03-29 The continual rise of English as a global lingua franca has meant that English literature both as a discipline and as a tool in ESL and EFL classrooms is being used in varied ways outside the inner circle of English. This edited collection provides an overview of English literature education in the Asia Pacific in global times, bringing to international attention a rich understanding of the trends, issues and challenges specific to nations within the Asia Pacific region. Comprising contributions from Australia, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore and Vietnam, the collection addresses the diversity of learners in different national cultural and teaching contexts. In doing so, it provides insights into historical and current trends in literature education, foregrounds specific issues and challenges in policymaking and implementation, presents practical matters concerning text selection, use of literature in the language classroom, innovative practices in literature education and raises pressing and important questions about the nature, purpose and importance of literature education in global times.
