Muslims and Islam in U.S. Education

Liz Jackson,2014-04-03 Winner of Philosophy of Education Society of Australasia PESA s inaugural PESA Book Awards in 2015 and The University of Hong Kong Research Output Prize for Education 2014 15 Muslims and Islam in U S Education explores the complex interface that exists between U S school curriculum teaching practice about religion in public schools societal and teacher attitudes toward Islam and Muslims and multiculturalism as a framework for meeting the needs of minority group students It presents multiculturalism as a concept that needs to be rethought and reformulated in the interest of creating a more democratic inclusive and informed society Islam is an under considered religion in American education due in part to the fact that Muslims represent a very small minority of the population today less than 1% However this group faces a crucial challenge of representation in United States society as a whole as well as in its schools Muslims in the United States are impacted by ignorance that news and opinion polls have demonstrated is widespread among the public in the last few decades U S citizens who do not have a balanced fair and accurate view of Islam can make a variety of decisions in the voting booth in job hiring and within their small scale but important personal networks and spheres of influence that make a very negative impact on Muslims in the United States This book presents new information that has implications for curricula religious education and multicultural education today examining the unique case of Islam in U S education over the last 20 years Chapters include Perspectives on Multicultural Education 9 11 the Media and the New Need to Know Islam and Muslims in Public Schools Blazing a Path for Intercultural Education This book is an essential resource for professors researchers and teachers of social studies particularly those involved with multicultural issues critical and sociocultural analysis of education and schools as well as interdisciplinary scholars and students in anthropology and education
