This Question Paper Consists of 04 printed pages.

1. Write a paragraph on any one topic : (15)

An experience in a crowded bus.

OR

b) While walking on the road, you suddenly find a one thousand rupees note. What would you like to do with it.

2. a) Write a letter to your friend inviting him her to join you in a picnic during the winter holidays. (10)

OR

b) Write a letter to your cousin about your hobby.

3. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below :

How often have you returned from a trip to the out doors disappointed at not having seen any animals ? Some days even birds, other than bold and friendly ones, are hard to see. Wait ! There are certain explanations for this. Perhaps you were walking too fast or noisily on the dry, leaf - littered forest floor or you were talking non-stop with a friend ? Or wearing bright - coloured clothes with a million little things jingling in your pockets ? Before setting out, be sure to prepare for your trip.

Always wear dull, earth - coloured clothes in the woods. Never carry or wear shiny, metallic objects. Wild birds and animals are extremely sharp - eyed and alert.

Ecocriticism, Ecology, and the Cultures of Antiquity Christopher Schliephake,2016-12-07 Although current environmental debates lay the focus on the Industrial Revolution as a sociopolitical development that has led to the current environmental crisis many ecocritical projects have avoided historicizing their concepts or have been characterized by approaches that were either pre historic or post historic while the environmental movement has harbored the dream of restoring nature to a state untouched by human hands there is also the pessimistic vision of a post apocalyptic world exhausted by humanity's consumption of natural resources Against this background the decline of nature has become a narrative template quite common among the public environmental discourse and environmental scientists alike The volume revisits Antiquity as an epoch which witnessed similar environmental problems and came up with its own interpretations and solutions in dealing with them This decidedly historical perspective is not only supposed to fill in a blank in ecocritical discourse but also to question problematize and inform our contemporary debates with a completely different take on nature and humanity's place in the world Thereby a productive dialogue between contemporary ecocritical theories and the classical tradition is established that highlights similarities as well as differences This volume is the first book to bring ecocriticism and the classical tradition into a comprehensive dialogue It assembles recognized experts in the field and advanced scholars as well as young and aspiring ecocritics In order to ensure a dialogic exchange between the contributions the volume includes four response essays by established ecocritics which embed the sections within a larger theoretical and practical ecocritical framework and discuss the potential of including the pre modern world into our environmental debates Environmental Systems Science Daniel A. International Resource Panel,2021-01-12 The International Resource Panel IRP was established to provide independent coherent and authoritative scientific assessments on the use of natural resources and their environmental impacts over the full life cycle The Panel aims to contribute to a better understanding of how to decouple economic growth from environmental degradation while enhancing well being The Secretariat is hosted by the United Nations Environment Programme IRP assessments demonstrate the opportunities for governments businesses and wider society to work together to create and implement policies that ultimately lead to sustainable resource management including through better planning technological innovation and strategic incentives and investments Materials are vital to modern society but their production is an important source of greenhouse gases Emissions from material production are now comparable to those from agriculture forestry and land use change combined yet they have received much less attention from the climate policy community The IPR authors propose looking beyond energy efficiency to reduce global carbon footprint This report was developed by the IRP in response to a request from the Group of 7 It conducts a rigorous assessment of the contribution of material efficiency to GHG abatement strategies More concretely it assesses the potential reduction of GHG emissions from material efficiency strategies applied in residential buildings and light duty vehicles and reviews policies that address these strategies The IRP modelling results show that increasing material efficiency can help enhance efforts in moving towards the 1.5 C target set by the Paris Agreement Page 4 of cover Long-Term Ecological Measurements, Report of a Conference, Woods Hole, Massachusetts, March 16-18, 1977 ,1978 Acta Theriologica ,2014 Ulrich's Periodicals Directory ,1989

Urbanization and Development ,2016 The analysis of urban development of the past twenty years presented in this maiden edition of the World Cities Report shows with compelling evidence that there are new forms of collaboration and cooperation planning governance finance and learning that can sustain positive change The Report unequivocally demonstrates that the current urbanization model is unsustainable in many respects. It conveys a clear message that the pattern of urbanization needs to change in order to better respond to the challenges of our time to address issues such as inequality, climate change, informality, insecurity and the unsustainable forms of urban expansion.
