Celebrating Life Customs around the World Victoria R. Williams, 2016-11-21 This book documents hundreds of customs and traditions practiced in countries outside of the United States showcasing the diversity of birth coming of age and death celebrations worldwide From the beginning of our lives to the end all of humanity celebrates life s milestones through traditions and unique customs In the United States we have specific events like baby showers rites of passage such as Bat and Bar Mitzvahs and sweet 16 birthday parties and sober end of life traditions like obituaries and funeral services that honor those who have died But what kinds of customs and traditions are practiced in other countries How do people in other cultures welcome babies prepare to enter into adulthood and commemorate the end of the lives of loved ones This three volume encyclopedia covers more than 300 birth life and death customs with the books content organized chronologically by life stage Volume 1 focuses on birth and childhood customs Volume 2 documents adolescent and early adulthood customs and Volume 3 looks at aging and death customs The entries in the first volume examine pre birth traditions such as baby showers and other gift giving events and post birth customs such as naming ceremonies child rearing practices and traditions performed to ward off evil or promote good health The second volume contains information about rites of passage as children become adults including indigenous initiations marriage customs and religious ceremonies The final volume concludes with coverage on customs associated with aging and death such as retirement celebrations elaborate funeral processions and the creation of fantasy coffins The set features beautiful color inserts that illustrate examples of celebrations and ceremonies and includes an appendix of excerpts from primary documents that include legislation on government accepted names wedding vows and maternity paternity leave regulations Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post Apartheid era During this time there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent's culture and identities of all South Africans The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa
