PLOT

- Spend time on the premise so that it is as compelling as possible. For commercial fiction there should be a great hook to the central idea. (E.g. Would you kill your wife to save your child?)
- Write down ONE main story question which will be answered by the end of the novel. Will the heroine find love? Will the detective discover who the real killer is?

STORY LENGTH

- Short Novel: 45,000 to 60,000 words

- What central question does the main idea pose?
- How can you expand that to several levels for secondary characters?
- What is at stake for the main character?
- Why should a reader care about that issue?
- Is there a central dilemma that will drive the story?
