

Thesis Paper Outline Format

- I. Introduction: In this section, give the reader an idea of why your paper will be important and/or interesting, what you will be arguing, and make the organization of the paper clear to the reader.
  - a. Explanation of purpose and background information (optional): Explain why this topic needs to be written about (may require some background on the topic)
  - b. Thesis statement: A basic statement of your position; your answer to your research question
  - c. Expanded thesis statement: A brief listing of the major points that you will make in your paper, in the order in which you will make them
- II. Arguments: Each of your main arguments can either argue a point that supports your position, or argue against something you believe is wrong. This is a lengthy paper, so ideally you will have more than three arguments to make. You should make as many as you can. Organize your arguments to flow from one to the next or, ideally, to put your strongest arguments first and last.
  - a. Argument 1
    - i. Supporting evidence (author, pg. or para. #)
    - ii. More supporting evidence! (author, pg. or para. #)
    - iii. Even more supporting evidence!! (author, pg. or para. #)
  - b. Argument 2
    - i. Supporting evidence (author, pg. or para. #)
    - ii. More supporting evidence! (author, pg. or para. #)
    - iii. Even more supporting evidence!! (author, pg. or para. #)
  - c. Argument 3
    - i. Supporting evidence (author, pg. or para. #)
    - ii. More supporting evidence! (author, pg. or para. #)
    - iii. Even more supporting evidence!! (author, pg. or para. #)
- III. Conclusion: This section of your paper should summarize and look to the future.
  - a. Acknowledge the opposing side of the argument
  - b. Re-emphasize your own argument by summarizing the main points that you made
  - c. Draw final conclusions about the strength of your position

 Goldenberg, 1997      Create Your School Library Writing Center Timothy Horan, 2016-10-16 Colleges typically have writing centers to which students can bring their writing assignments to a peer tutor for assistance but most high schools and middle schools do not This book advocates for the creation of writing centers in 7 12 schools and explains why the school library is the best place for the writing center There is a glaring absence of writing centers in today s K 12 schools More and more students are being asked in college entrance testing to submit samples of their writing and employers are expecting their workers to write correctly and clearly This book addresses the critical lack of writing centers below the undergraduate level
 It demonstrates how middle school and high school librarians can create writing centers in their school libraries explains how to assist students through a one on one writing tutorial method and gives students and teachers the tools for learning and understanding the complex art of writing Author Timothy Horan inventor of the School Library Writing Center establishes why school libraries represent the best and most logical places to create writing centers and why school librarians are the natural choice to direct writing center operations He then takes readers through the process of creating a writing center from original conception up through opening day Additional topics covered include how to publicize and grow your School Library Writing Center maintaining your writing center for efficient operation on a daily basis as well as for years to come how to become an effective writing center director and writing tutor the most current technology that can be
