Simulation and Modeling of Systems of Systems Pascal Cantot, Dominique Luzeaux, 2013-03-04 Systems engineering is the design of a complex interconnection of many elements a system to maximize a specific measure of system performance It consists of two parts modeling in which each element of the system and its performance criteria are described and optimization in which adjustable elements are tailored to allow peak performance Systems engineering is applied to vast numbers of problems in industry and the military

An example of systems engineering at work is the control of the timing of thousands of city traffic lights to maximize traffic flow The complex and intricate field of electronics and computers is perfectly suited for systems engineering analysis and in turn advances in communications and computer technology have made more advanced systems engineering problems solvable Thus the two areas feed off of one another This book is a basic introduction to the use of models and methods in the engineering design of systems It is aimed at students as well as practicing engineers The concept of the systems of systems is discussed extensively after a critical comparison of the different definitions and a range of various practical illustrations It also provides key answers as to what a system of systems is and how its complexity can be mastered      Network World ,1999-04-12 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce      NRL Review ,2012      UNIX Review ,1993-07      The Software Encyclopedia 2000 Bowker Editorial Staff,2000-05      InfoWorld ,1993-02-15 InfoWorld is targeted to Senior IT professionals Content is segmented into Channels and Topic Centers InfoWorld also celebrates people companies and projects      Rehabilitation Nursing Practice Patricia Chin,Darlene N.
