Exampler Geography November 2013:

Four Exemplars of Ru (Confucianism) Paul J. D'Ambrosio, Geir Sigurðsson, Dimitra Amarantidou, Hans-Georg Moeller, 2025-08-15 This book discusses scholars who have all engaged in comparative philosophy projects many of whom first rose to fame because of their penetrating insights into the similarities and differences in Western and Chinese thought They all went beyond simply looking at how one thinker one school or one tradition relates to another each draws on sources from China and the West However their projects from role ethics to concrete metaphysics from critiquing individualism to balancing harmony and justice are attempts at re evaluating the way we view the world and live our lives These projects are systematic thorough and comprehensive descriptions of ourselves the world and our interactions with others They are all comparative but on top of this they also aim at making a point that transcends their comparisons The book thus shows that these great thinkers draw on a multiplicity of resources and while they might find some ideas closer to home than others comparison is a necessary constant Using traditional Confucian vocabulary this type of philosophizing is described as practicing xue normally understood as studying or learning But it also means to copy imitate model or emulate In the process of xue one imitates but with a nod to differences This book honors four models of such an attitude to xue In its examination of some of the most influential scholars in Chinese thought this is a seminal book for scholars and students in Chinese and comparative philosophy

Mobilities and Foucault Katharina Manderscheid, Tim Schwanen, David Tyfield, 2017-10-02 Although Foucault's work has been employed and embraced enthusiastically by some mobilities scholars discussion across these two traditions to date has mostly been partial and unsystematic Yet Foucault's work can make critical contributions for example to thinking about governing mobilities in contemporary societies while conversely mobilities research opens up new perspectives on Foucault In combination these bodies of work can illuminate issues as diverse as the greater interdependencies between mobility systems e.g. transport tourism trade internet use the proliferation of the undesired mobilities of viruses of natural phenomena like fire or what is taken to be criminality and other seemingly inevitable by products of globalisation the perceived threats to desirable forms of mobility as constituted by climate change peak oil and energy security and terrorism and warfare and the increased popularity of logics of governance premised on choice responsabilisation and the re coding of phenomena in economic terms under neo liberalism Against this background this book brings together the first major collection of contributions from across the social sciences with a shared interest in both mobilities and Foucauldian thinking This book was published as a special issue of Mobilities

The Digital Arts and Humanities Charles Travis, Alexander von Lünen, 2016-10-25 The case studies in this book illuminate how arts and humanities tropes can aid in contextualizing Digital Arts and Humanities Neogeographic and Social Media activity and data through the creation interpretive schemas to study interactions between visualizations language human behaviour time and place

Accomplishing Climate Governance Harriet Bulkeley, 2016 This book provides original critical insights into climate
