Guide Shmoop Literature:

The Yellow Wallpaper: Shmoop Literature Guide Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2010 Values Across Cultures and Times Biljana Mišić Ilić, Vesna Lopičić, 2014-03-17 Values Across Cultures and Times is a collection of sixteen articles examining the concept of values understood in its broadest sense as the need of the modern man to examine, redefine and reconstruct previous theories, histories, moralities, social relationships, forms of language and language use. In times of great change, preserving traditional values seems to be particularly difficult, and the authors of these essays respond to the challenge and approach the notion of changing values from the perspectives of literary studies and linguistics. The book opens with an introductory overview followed by sixteen articles divided into three sections. The book is aimed at a broad academic audience, while the popular style of the articles also makes the volume appealing to a wider audience interested in different aspects of values. The authors of the articles come from Serbia, Macedonia, Bulgaria, Romania, and the United States.

The Book of Mothers Carrie Mullins, 2024-05-07 Timely and evergreen, engaging and infuriating, personal and universal, a necessary reintroduction to some of fiction's most familiar mothers. Cecile Richards, bestselling author of Make Trouble and former president of Planned Parenthood. A smart and engaging look at fifteen classic novels that have shaped our cultural notions of motherhood: Sweet, supportive, dependable, selfless. Long before she had children of her own, journalist Carrie Mullins knew how mothers should behave. But how? Where did these expectations come from, and more importantly, are they serving the mothers whose lives they shape? Carrie's suspicion later crystallized while raising two small children: was that our culture's idealization of motherhood, was not only painfully limiting but harmful, leaving women to cope with impossible standards, standards rarely created by mothers themselves? To discover how we might talk about motherhood in a more realistic, nuanced and inclusive way, Carrie turned to literature with memorable maternal figures for answers. Moving through the literary canon from Pride and Prejudice and Little Women to The Great Gatsby, Beloved, Heartburn and The Joy Luck Club, Carrie traces the origins of our modern mothering experience. By interrogating the influences of politics, economics, feminism, pop culture and family life in each text, she identifies the factors that have shaped our prevailing views of motherhood and puts these classics into conversation with the most urgent issues of the day. Who were these literary mothers beyond their domestic responsibilities and familial demands? And what lessons do they have for us today if we choose to listen. Apps for Learning Harry J. Dickens, Andrew Churches, 2011-10-20 Provides detailed descriptions of forty apps that can be used in high school classrooms. Inclusive Learning 365 Christopher R.
