management infection control and risk     Marching Orders C.R. Hopkins, 2017-04-11 Clive Hopkins s parents were Salvation Army Officers which meant their sons had to endure six hours of religious meetings every Sunday and no football most kinds of pleasure including girls were off limits and friendships were disrupted by frequent moves to new postings When finally at the age of 14 Clive was coerced into becoming a Soldier himself it was a step too far and like his older brother he rebelled and became a backslider He has now written this entertaining and moving memoir of a youth spent trying to balance the desire to enjoy a normal boyhood with the demands of his parents calling In his story Clive captures evocatively a lost world and finally resolves a family mystery

Living Black Theology Anthony G. Reddie, 2025-05-22 Living Black Theology provides a challenging and radical critique of the present world order It argues that the world as we experience it presently has its roots in the era of slavery and European colonialism especially the British empire the largest example of imperialism in human history Written by the first Professor of Black Theology in the history of the University of Oxford Living Black Theology offers a bold reassessment of how we can rethink the past that will challenge our contemporary ways of living Ultimately this text seeks to help us reimagine and remake the future one that is more equitable and just for all peoples This is a landmark book
