Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy, 2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies

Christopher Nolan Darren Mooney, 2018-10-10 Christopher Nolan is one of the defining directors of the 21st century Few of his contemporaries can compete in terms of critical and commercial success let alone cultural impact His films have a rare ability to transcend audience expectations appealing to both casual moviegoers and dyed in the wool cineastes Nolan s work ranges from gritty crime thrillers Memento Insomnia to spectacular blockbusters the Dark Knight trilogy Inception They have taken audiences from the depths of space Interstellar to the harsh realities of war Dunkirk And they have pushed the boundaries of the possible in modern movie making This critical history covers his complete filmography tracing his career from film student to indie darling to Oscar nominated auteur
