Get Those Guys Reading! Kathleen A. Baxter, Marcia Agness Kochel, 2012-05-07 Want to identify fiction books that boys in grades three through nine will find irresistible? This guide reveals dozens of worthwhile recommendations in categories ranging from adventure stories and sports novels to horror, humorous, and science fiction books. In Get Those Guys Reading: Fiction and Series Books that Boys Will Love, authors Kathleen A. Baxter and Marcia A. Kochel provide compelling and current reading suggestions for younger boys. Information that educators, librarians, and parents alike are desperate for. Comprising titles that are almost all well-reviewed in at least one major professional journal or that are such big hits with kids that they've received the stamp of approval from the most important reviewers, this book will be invaluable to anyone whose goal is to help boys develop a healthy enthusiasm for reading. It includes chapters on adventure books, animal stories, graphic novels, historical fiction, humorous books, mystery, horror, and suspense titles, science fiction, and fantasy, and sports novels. Within each chapter, the selections are further divided into books for younger readers (grades 3-6) and titles for older boys (grades 5-8). Elementary and middle school librarians and teachers, public librarians, Title I teachers, and parents of boys in grades 3-9 will all benefit greatly from having this book at hand.

Global Literacy in Local Learning Contexts Mary Faith Mount-Cors, 2016-06-10 Based on qualitative research focused on literacy and health from three schools in coastal Kenya, this book examines country school and family contexts to develop a dual generation maternal child model for literacy learning and to connect local specific phenomena with national and international policy arenas. In contrast to international development organizations' educational policies and programs that tend to ignore literacy as a social practice within diverse contexts, the author unpacks the relationship between education and health and the role of family and mothers in particular, highlighting how mothers are key actors in children's literacy development and health outcomes.

Handbook of Home Language Maintenance and Development Andrea C. Schalley, Susana A. Eisenchlas, 2020-06-22 Even a cursory look at conference programs and proceedings reveals a burgeoning interest in the field of social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development. To date, however, research on this topic has been published in piecemeal fashion, subsumed under the more general umbrella of bilingualism. Within bilingualism research, there has been an extensive exploration of linguistic and psycholinguistic perspectives on the one hand, and educational practices and outcomes on the other. In comparison, social and affective factors which lead people to either maintain or shift the language have been under-researched. This is the first volume that brings together the different strands in research on social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development, ranging from the micro level family language policies and practices to the meso level community initiatives and the macro level mainstream educational policies and their implementation. The volume showcases a wide distribution across contexts and populations explored. Contributors from around the world represent different research paradigms and perspectives, providing a rounded overview of the state of the art in this flourishing field.
