Getting The Goods Ports Labor And The Logistics:

Getting the Goods Edna Bonacich, Jake B. Wilson, 2011-03-15 In Getting the Goods Edna Bonacich and Jake B Wilson focus on the Southern California ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach which together receive 40 percent of the nearly 2 trillion worth of goods imported annually to the United States to examine the impact of the logistics revolution on workers in transportation and distribution Built around the invention of shipping containers and communications technology the logistics revolution has enabled giant retailers like Wal Mart and Target to sell cheap consumer products made using low wage labor in developing countries The goods are shipped through an efficient low cost intermodal freight system in which containers are moved from factories in Asia to distribution centers across the United States without ever being opened Bonacich and Wilson follow the flow of imports from Asian factories exploring the roles of importers container shipping companies the ports railroad and trucking companies and warehouses At each stage Getting the Goods raises important questions about how the logistics revolution affects logistics workers Drawing extensively on interviews with workers and managers at all levels of the supply chain on industry reports and on economic data Bonacich and Wilson find that in general conditions have deteriorated for workers But they also discover that changes in the system of production and distribution provide new strategic opportunities for labor to gain power A much needed corrective to both uncritical celebrations of containerization and the global economy and pessimistic predictions about the future of the U S labor movement Getting the Goods will become required reading for scholars and students in sociology political economy and labor studies

Df-Getting the Goods Z Bonacich, Wilson, 2011-02-23 Cities, Regions and Flows Peter V. Hall, Markus Hesse, 2013 Cities Regions and Flows presents a theoretical framework for understanding the changing relationship between places and physical movement and thoughtfully prepared case studies from five continents on how cities relate to value chains and how they ensure accessibility and urban liveability in an increasingly contested policy environment Moreover the book discusses how urban policies attempt to solve related conflicts in terms of infrastructure provision land use local labour markets and environmental sustainability The two subsystems that are of major interest here urban regions on the one hand and logistics management and physical distribution on the other develop in quite distinct and often contradictory ways Whereas urban regions face disintegration due to the expansion of the built environment and the spatio temporal fragmentation of life worlds and regional systems the logistics system itself demands integration in order to keep flows moving and to reduce costs Physical flows networks and chains thus have a fundamental impact on urban restructuring Handbook Global History of Work Karin Hofmeester, Marcel van der Linden, 2017-11-20 Coffee from East Africa wine from California chocolate from the Ivory Coast all those every day products are based on labour often produced under appalling conditions but always involving the combination of various work processes we are often not aware of What is the day to day reality for workers in various parts of the world and how was it in the past How do they work today and how did they work in the past These and many other questions comprise the field of the global history of work a young discipline that is introduced with this handbook In 8 thematic chapters this book discusses these aspects of work in a global and long term perspective paying attention to several kinds of work Convict labour slave and wage labour labour migration and workers of the textile industry but also workers organisation strikes and motivations for work are part of this first handbook of global labour history written by the most renowned scholars of the profession

Sociology of Work Vicki Smith,2013-05-16 The simple act of going to work every day is an integral part of all societies across the globe It is an ingrained social contract we all work to survive But it goes beyond physical survival Psychologists have equated losing a job with the trauma of divorce or a family death and enormous issues arise from financial panic to sinking self esteem Through work we build our self identity our lifestyle and our aspirations How did it come about that work dominates so many parts of our lives and our psyche This multi disciplinary encyclopedia covers curricular subjects that seek to address that question ranging from business and management to anthropology sociology social history psychology politics economics and health Features Benefits International and comparative coverage 335 signed entries A to Z fill 2 volumes in print and electronic formats Cross References and Suggestions for Further Readings guide readers to additional resources A Chronology provides students with historical perspective of the sociology of work In the electronic version the comprehensive Index combines with the Cross References and thematic Reader s Guide themes to provide robust search and browse capabilities

Locative Media Rowan Wilken, Gerard Goggin,2014-08-07 Not only is locative media one of the fastest growing areas in digital technology but questions of location and location awareness are increasingly central to our contemporary engagements with online and mobile media and indeed media and culture generally This volume is a comprehensive account of the various location based technologies services applications and cultures as media with an aim to identify inventory explore and critique their cultural economic political social and policy dimensions internationally In particular the collection is organized around the perception that the growth of locative media gives rise to a number of crucial questions concerning the areas of culture economy and policy

The Cost of Free Shipping Jake Alimahomed-Wilson, Ellen Reese,2020-09-20 Winner of the UALE Book Award 2021 Amazon is the most powerful corporation on the planet and its CEO Jeff Bezos has become the richest person in history and one of the few people to profit from a global pandemic Its dominance has reshaped the global economy itself we live in the age of Amazon Capitalism One click instant consumerism and its immense variety of products has made Amazon a worldwide household name with over 60% of US households subscribing to Amazon Prime In turn these subscribers are surveilled by the corporation Amazon is also one of the world s largest logistics companies resulting in weakened unions and lowered labor standards The company has also become the largest provider of cloud computing services and home surveillance systems not to mention the ubiquitous Alexa With cutting edge analyses this book looks at the many dark facets of the corporation including automation surveillance tech work workers struggles algorithmic challenges the disruption of
