Warring with Words Michael Hanne,William D.

Crano,Jeffery Scott Mio,2014-08-01 Scholars in many of the disciplines surrounding politics explicitly utilize either a narrative perspective or a metaphor perspective though rarely the two in combination to analyze issues theoretical and practical domestic and international in the broad field of politics Among the topics they have studied are competing metaphors for the state or nation which have been coined over the centuries in diverse cultures the frequency with which communal and international conflicts are generated at least in part by the clashing religious and historical narratives held by opposing groups the cognitive short cuts employing metaphor by which citizens make sense of politics the need for political candidates to project a convincing self narrative the extent to which the metaphors used to formulate social issues determine the policies which will be developed to resolve them the failure of narratives around the security of the nation to take account of the individual experiences of women and children This volume is the first in which eminent scholars from disciplines as diverse as social psychology anthropology political theory international relations feminist political science and media studies have sought to integrate the narrative and the metaphor perspectives on politics It will appeal to any scholar interested in the many ways in which narrative and metaphor function in combination as cognitive and rhetorical instruments in discourse around politics

The Nexus Jon H. Widener M.D.,2017-06-28 The Nexus so named because of the operational intersection or Nexus of faith and culture is an alphabetized manual of cultural artifacts of significance to Christians In The Nexus Jon Widener observes how Christianity has lost many battles over the years and how the evangelical community has been fraught with endemic anti intellectualism He sees an evangelical insularity taking the form of retreat and retrenchment from the comings and goings of the larger society Dr Widener proposes that modern Christian believers correct these deficits by exercising the exhortation of I Pet 3 15 KJV to always be prepared to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you Believers should educate themselves on culturally relevant issues where there are questions of

Christian morality This is the burden and purpose of the book Accordingly the standard for inclusion is straight forward If the topic is culturally encountered and has moral implications then it meets the threshold standard for inclusion in the work
