Georges De La Tour 57 Colour Plates:

Georges de La Tour Maria Tsaneva, Blago Kirov, 2015-01-07 Georges de La Tour was a French Baroque artist who painted mostly religious scenes in chiaroscuro style lit by pale candlelight. La Tour's early paintings show influences from Caravaggio and probably also from Jacques Bellange, but unlike Caravaggio his religious paintings lack dramatic effects. He painted using chiaroscuro, careful geometrical compositions and very simplified depictions of forms. His painting method moves during his career towards greater simplicity and stillness. La Tour often painted several variations on the same subjects and his surviving production is relatively small. After his death La Tour's work was forgotten until rediscovered by Hermann Voss, a German scholar in the beginning of 20th century. In the twentieth century a number of his works were recognized once more, but many aspects of his work remain controversial.

As students cover new material in the workbook, concepts are reinforced and synthesized, resulting in a comprehensive understanding of form and content. Upon completion of the text, students are well prepared to participate in the design process and further interpret visual content.
