Reading Faces and Bodies: Behavioural and Neural Processes Underlying the Understanding of, and Interaction with, Others Paola Ricciardelli,Andrew P. Bayliss,Rossana Actis-Grosso,2017-04-27 The aim of this Research Topic was to offer an interdisciplinary forum for researchers interested in the interplay of face eye gaze and body perception in the understanding of others with an emphasis on behavioural and neural processing The papers included in this topic come from cognitive neuroscience and social psychology perspectives and shed new light on how facial and body cues interact with each other and with social ecological and contextual factors such as for example social identification and group membership to form a unified representation that can guide our perceptions and responses to other people Altogether they provide an up to date picture of advances in this fascinating research field

Behavioral Science & Policy: Volume 2, Issue 2 Craig Fox,Sim B. Sitkin,2017-06-27 The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals groups and organizations Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research However policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground a place where scientists and non scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action By design the scope of BSP is broad with topics spanning health care financial decisionmaking energy and the environment education and culture justice and ethics and work place practices Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology sociology law behavioral economics organization science decision science and marketing The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists policymakers and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political perspective
