Using Formative Assessment to Enhance Learning, Achievement, and Academic Self-Regulation Heidi L. Andrade, Margaret Heritage, 2017-07-20 There is convincing evidence that carefully applied classroom assessments can promote student learning and academic self regulation. These assessments include but are not limited to conversations with students diagnostic test items and co created rubrics used to guide feedback for students themselves and their peers. Writing with the practical constraints of teaching in mind Andrade and Heritage present a concise resource to help pre and in service teachers maximize the positive impacts of classroom assessment on teaching. Using Formative Assessment to Enhance Learning Achievement and Academic Self Regulation translates work from leading specialists and explains how to use assessment to improve learning by linking learning theory to formative assessment processes. Sections on goal setting, progress monitoring, interpreting feedback and revision of goal setting make this a timely addition to assessment courses.

AI in Learning: Designing the Future Hannele Niemi, Roy D. Pea, Yu Lu, 2022-11-26 AI Artificial Intelligence is predicted to radically change teaching and learning in both schools and industry causing radical disruption of work. AI can support well-being initiatives and lifelong learning but educational institutions and companies need to take the changing technology into account. Moving towards AI supported by digital tools requires a dramatic shift in the concept of learning expertise and the businesses built off of it. Based on the latest research on AI and how it is changing learning and education this book will focus on the enormous opportunities to expand educational settings with AI for learning in and beyond the traditional classroom. This open access book also introduces ethical challenges related to learning and education while connecting human learning and machine learning. This book will be of use to a variety of readers including researchers, AI users, companies and policy makers.
