Hero in the Shadows David Tossell, 2021-11-15 Don Howe is one of English football's great coaches with an unrivalled record at international and club level As right hand man to three England managers he helped his country to the 1990 World Cup and Euro 96 semi finals He helped to steer them through the 1982 World Cup unbeaten and to the quarter finals four years later Howe masterminded the 1970/71 double at Arsenal where two spells as coach also brought European and further FA Cup glory He was also an integral part of one of the greatest Wembley upsets when he helped Wimbledon's Crazy Gang to victory over the mighty Liverpool in 1988 As a player at West Bromwich Albion Howe won 24 international caps but as a manager he failed to achieve the success he craved Yet over a three decade period he won acclaim from many of England's finest players as a genius of the coaching profession Through interviews with players colleagues friends and family this book examines the triumphs and challenges of Don Howe's career and assesses his contribution to English football

Game Of Three Halves Brian Beard, 2012-12-20 A Game Of Three Halves is the official biography of Kenny Swain It tells the tale of the man who quit teaching to sign for Chelsea the glamour club of the 1970s and then moved on to Aston Villa where having converted from striker to a full back role he played his part in winning the First Division championship and the European Cup Next Kenny was signed by Brian Clough at Nottingham Forest and he now paints an evocative personal picture of the most charismatic and controversial manager in English football history Portsmouth and Crewe were the last clubs to figure in an illustrious career that saw him play more than 100 games for five different clubs Today Kenny works in the England set up heading up the FA's talent ID programme and has helped develop players such as Michael Owen Joe Cole and Danny Welbeck

Rangers In London 1960-1971 Jerry 'J' Silverman, Rangers In London is the story of the nine matches between 1960 and 1971 when Britain and the World's most domestically successful football club with the greatest and most fervent support travelled south from Glasgow to the Capital city Almost every game seems to have thrown up something amazing or special From the first European Cup tie played in London to a match described by the legendary and equally reticent Spurs manager Bill Nicholson as the greatest game on earth Alex Ferguson's Rangers debut at Arsenal QPR's Rodney Marsh assaulting two players on the pitch and a teenager whisked from work in Glasgow in the morning to play in goal against a team of internationals and a world cup winner in the evening at Tottenham And we best not forget Rangers appearances at Chelsea for the man they called Chopper either and at Highbury for a gentleman who at his peak was quite possibly the best goalkeeper in Europe And much more Unashamedly nostalgic and so many great stories histories and characters to recall celebrate and write about In a more modest way we try to chart the development of football at Ibrox and in London on and off the field at a time when football was beginning to become more sophisticated commercial and international There s a bit of sociology too as we look at the emergence of football hooliganism skinheadism and wider societal cultures in and around football at that time Does what go around come around with a slightly different twist I ll let the reader decide But I hope you ll enjoy taking in these matches with me and get the same pleasure as the devoted thousands and perhaps you were one who followed on to London with Rangers Win lose or draw Finding
