George F. Watts Maria Tsaneva, Blago Kirov, 2015-01-09 George Frederic Watts was a admired English Victorian artist related with the Symbolist movement He became famous his allegorical works Love and Life and Hope These paintings were in which the emotions and aspirations of life would all be represented in a universal symbolic language Watts was a hard working artist who twice refused a baronetcy and other honors including an offer to become president of the Royal Academy His declared aims were clear to paint pictures that appealed to the intellect and refined emotions rather than the senses I paint ideas not things I paint primarily because I have something to say and since the gift of eloquent language has been denied to me I use painting my intention is not so much to paint pictures which shall please the eye as to suggest great thoughts which shall speak to the imagination and to the heart and arouse all that is best and noblest in humanity

The Ashtray Errol Morris, 2023-02-17 In 1972 philosopher of science Thomas Kuhn threw an ashtray at Errol Morris This book is the result At the time Morris was a graduate student Now we know him as one of the most celebrated and restlessly probing filmmakers of our time the creator of such classics of documentary investigation as The Thin Blue Line and The Fog of War Kuhn meanwhile was and posthumously remains a star in his field the author of The Structure of Scientific Revolutions a landmark book that has sold well over a million copies and introduced the concept of paradigm shifts to the larger culture And Morris thought the idea was bunk The Ashtray tells why and in doing so it makes a powerful case for Morris s way of viewing the world and the centrality to that view of a fundamental conception of the necessity of truth For me Morris writes truth is about the relationship between language and the world a correspondence idea of truth He has no patience for philosophical systems that aim for internal coherence and disdain the world itself Morris is after bigger game he wants to establish as clearly as possible what we know and can say about the world reality history our actions and interactions It s the fundamental desire that animates his filmmaking whether he s probing Robert McNamara about Vietnam or the oddball owner of a pet cemetery Truth may be slippery but that doesn t mean we have to grease its path of escape through philosophical evasions Rather Morris argues powerfully it is our duty to do everything we can to establish and support it The Master Library: Using and teaching the Bible Walter Scott Athearn, 1927 The Art Amateur , 1898
