Sex Ed, Segregated Courtney Q. Shah, 2015 Demonstrates that the intersection between race gender and class formed the backbone of Progressive Era debates over sex education the policing of sexuality and the prevention of venereal disease

You've Changed Laurie J. Shrage, 2009-08-18 Who is in the best position to know a person's sex and do we each have a true sex When a person's sex changes has the old self disappeared and a new one emerged or has only the public presentation of one's self changed The essays in this collection address these questions and look at the philosophical issues that surround gender sex and sexual orientation

Trans Exploits Jian Neo Chen, 2019-11-06 In Trans Exploits Jian Neo Chen explores the cultural practices created by trans and gender nonconforming artists and activists of color They argue for a radical rethinking of the policies and technologies of racial gendering and assimilative social programming that have divided LGBT communities and communities of color along the lines of gender sexuality class immigration status and ability Focusing on performance film video literature digital media and other forms of cultural expression and activism that track the displaced emergences of trans people of color Chen highlights the complex and varied responses by trans communities to their social dispossession Through these responses trans of color cultural workers such as performance artist Yozmit writer Janet Mock and organizer Jennicet Gutierrez challenge dominating perceptions and institutions that kill confine police and discipline trans people

From Texts to Bodies Jacqueline Murray, 2025-04-24 From Texts to Bodies Sexes Genders and Sexualities in Premodern Europe reflects the historiographical changes to the study of women gender and sexuality in premodern Europe across the 1990s into the 2010s Developing from post Baby Boom interest in marriage and the family subsequently inspired by feminist theory and cultural studies scholars turned their gaze to the wider field of sex and gender Using an interdisciplinary methodology and a broad cross section of medieval primary sources these articles trace the evolution of medieval studies from the family through women and gender to focus on sex and sexuality concluding with critical analyses of men masculinity and male embodiment Part I focuses on medieval women within the context of marriage family and the church and reveals new approaches to recovering women's experiences The articles sit at the transition point between recuperative women's history and critical gender history Part II uses an interdisciplinary lens to examine the body sex and sexuality and the intersections of sex sexualities and genders The innovative articles in Part III comprise the foundations for the critical analysis of premodern men masculinity embodiment and male sexuality Together these studies demonstrate the expansion of research from the examination of theoretical texts to the analysis of bodies as lived experience This volume will be of interest to scholars and students of premodern marriage genders sexualities and embodiment as well as those interested in the social and religious contexts of premodern society Clear and accessible this volume also provides an introduction and overview for readers with a broad interest in the Middle Ages

Sexed Pistols Vanessa Farr, Henri Myrtilinen, Albrecht Schnabel, 2009 Every day small arms and light weapons SALW kill wound and threaten millions of adults and children Due to their widespread availability mobility and ease of use prolific SALW have become central to maintaining social dislocation destabilization insecurity and crime in the build up to war during wartime and in the aftermath of conflict Small arms are misused within domestic settings as well as in public spaces affecting everyone in the community without regard to sex or age The impact of these weapons can be vastly different for women and men and for girls and boys However careful consideration of gender and age is rare in the formulation of small arms policy of planning small arms collection or control or even in small arms research To counter the effects of prolific SALW their role in gender and age specific violence must be more deeply analyzed and the results applied at the policy and operational level This work should be undertaken in war afflicted contexts in societies suffering from elevated levels of social violence and or severe underdevelopment and in those tolerant of the presence of individually owned firearms Contributors to the book draw on experience and research from around the world on the nexus of gender age violence and small arms in developing and developed countries They provide a number of recommendations for policies programs and research designed to further illuminate and counteract the firing of the sexed pistol

Perverse Romanticism Richard C. Sha, 2009-01-12 Richard C Sha s revealing study considers how science shaped notions of sexuality reproduction and gender in the Romantic period Through careful and imaginative readings of various scientific texts the philosophy of Immanuel Kant and Longinus and the works of such writers as William Blake Percy Bysshe Shelley Mary Wollstonecraft and Lord Byron Sha explores the influence of contemporary aesthetics and biology on literary Romanticism Revealing that ideas of sexuality during the Romantic era were much more fluid and undecided than they are often characterized in the existing scholarship Sha s innovative study complicates received claims concerning the shift from perversity to perversion in the nineteenth century He observes that the questions of perversity or purposelessness became simultaneously critical in Kantian aesthetics biological functionalism and Romantic ideas of private and public sexuality The Romantics then sought to reconceptualize sexual pleasure as deriving from mutuality rather than from the biological purpose of reproduction At the nexus of Kantian aesthetics literary analysis and the history of medicine Perverse Romanticism makes an important contribution to the study of sexuality in the long eighteenth century
