Epaper Deccan Chronicle:

Narratives and New Voices from India Alankar Kaushik, Abir Suchiang, 2022-07-21 This volume focuses on indigenous knowledge in analyzing the traditions and communication processes within various communities of Northeast India. It deals with the historical and theoretical trajectory of communication for social change as a discipline bringing together a series of interesting case studies from the sphere of meaningful learning where individuals and communities engage in a cooperative and dialogic environment to promote change at multiple levels. The case studies cover a range of media: radio, video, forum, theatre, and considers both practitioners and audiences. The authors focus on narration, diversity, participation, and interaction. It is timely and expands knowledge relating to these areas by linking them in new ways. It is of interest to an academic audience as well as practitioners researching and working in areas of education, communication, community development, and social work.

Catholic Shrines in Chennai, India Thomas Charles Nagy, 2016-08-12 Though proportionally small, India's Christians are a populous and significant minority. Focussing on various Roman Catholic churches and shrines located in Chennai, a large city in South India where activities concerning saintal revival and shrinal development have taken place in the recent past, this book investigates the phenomenon of Catholic renewal in India. The author tracks the changing local significance of St Thomas the Apostle who, according to local legend, was martyred and buried in Chennai and details the efforts of the Church hierarchy in Chennai to bring about a revival of devotion to St Thomas. In doing so, the book considers Indian Catholic identity, Indian Christian indigeneity, and Hindu nationalism, as well as the marketing of St Thomas and Catholicism within South India.

Health and the Media Valentina Marinescu, Bianca Mitu, 2016-06-05 Analyzing the relationship between medicine and the media from different perspectives, these new essays fill a gap in this emerging field, providing new information on approaches to health communication and important reevaluations of health literacy theories. The contributors discuss ideas and methodologies across a range of topics including multifaceted health communication, media coverage of maternal health, the rhetoric of diagnosis in autoimmune illness, media representation of the sick in data-driven healthcare, and health news coverage in print media.
