What Television Remembers Jennifer Vanderburgh,2023-10-15 Television in Canada has been undervalued as a cultural form Despite being publicly funded Canadian television programs are also notoriously difficult to access once they go off the air which has compounded the problem In What Television Remembers Jennifer VanderBurgh intervenes in the story of the medium in Canada by exploring the long relationship between TV and the city of Toronto From the first demonstration of television at the Canadian National Exhibition in 1939 and the mass viewing of Queen Elizabeth II s coronation broadcast in 1953 to the late century installation of TV screens in public spaces around the city television has shaped Toronto s collective imagination and affirmed viewers in their multiple identities as local residents national citizens and transnational consumers In a close reading of Toronto based CBC dramas from the 1960s to 2010 VanderBurgh explains how the city has functioned as a strategic location in CBC programming reflecting dramatically changing ideas about Canadian identity community and citizenship At a time when many are suggesting that the era of television is over What Television Remembers sounds the alarm that we are in danger of forgetting TV in Canada without appreciating the complexities of its contributions and legacy

Novella Express #3 Sonia Hadj Said,Cath Barton,Andrea Layne Black,2023-03-02 Edition 3 of Novella Express A New Dawn for the Novella featuring Bluebird by Sonia Hadj Said Between the Virgin and the Sea by Cath Barton Dear FIN by Andrea Layne Black Novella Express is a book series publishing novellas submitted from around the world CONTRIBUTING TO EDITION 3 Bluebird starts on a morning that the protagonist believes to be the end of her life An immigrant from Eastern Europe the narrator has spent the last ten years thriving to be a writer or a journalist in London and failing on every front In a bid to try and save herself she takes a month off from her catering job and takes us down memory lane of experiences of being a young immigrant woman as well as a struggling artist Minimum wage jobs unpaid internships school certificates rented rooms in dangerous feeling areas nightlife rejections family expectations these are all entwined in her inner monologue as she fights for her own life before time runs out Without sentimentality Sonia Hadj Said's captivating novella records the casual cruelties of life and its fleeting moments of human connection and tenderness as an immigrant woman attempts to reconcile herself to the world around her. Cath Barton's melancholic novella Between The Virgin and the Sea is set in an unnamed city which has fallen off the map of the world and is accessible now only by sea. Violence has broken out in the city and the people fearing that the church is involved pray instead at roadside shrines. The story tells the events of a day at the end of which the white statue of the Virgin which stands on a hill overlooking the city may or may not come to life to restore peace to its people. Central to the story and living in the barrios is a boy called Tag the things of which he dreams and the maps he draws. Set in a surreal and changing city in which pizza delivery is carried out by donkey and nothing may be what it seems, Between the Virgin and the Sea explores themes of childhood and coming of age. A captivating blend of magical realism, tender comedy and literary experimentation, Between the Virgin and the Sea is a captivating portrait of urban life quite unlike any other. Andrea Layne Black's LGBTQ novella Dear FIN tells the story of Jack Wilson, a young man mourning his beloved dog on the eve of his 17th birthday and the six year anniversary of the tragic death of his parents as he struggles with friends, family, sexuality and his troubled feelings in the small coastal community of Old Riverdam. Dear FIN creates the dazzling, funny and raw world of a troubled teenager coming of age, coming out, coming to terms and coming together with new friends and loves. The narrator, Jack, is an instant friend to the reader too and Jack will make you look at life more differently than ever before. A book that dives deep into the pressures of how mental health and loss can take a toll on your life, Dear FIN is a fun, heart-pounding novella that looks at coping with loss. To read Dear FIN is to step with Jack as he struggles with friends, family, sexuality and his troubled feelings in the small coastal community of Old Riverdam. A funny and charismatic tale from Canada, Dear FIN is a satisfying and thoughtful novella within which the reader can unusually participate. International business magazine for television, Drum, 2005. Indigenous Women's Theatre in Canada Sarah MacKenzie, 2020-11-15T00:00:00Z. Despite a recent increase in the productivity and popularity of Indigenous playwrights in Canada, most critical and academic attention has been devoted to the work of male dramatists, leaving female writers on the margins. In Indigenous Women's Theatre in Canada, Sarah MacKenzie addresses this critical gap by focusing on plays by Indigenous women written and produced in the socio-cultural milieux of twentieth and twenty-first century Canada. Closely analyzing dramatic texts by Monique Mojica, Marie Clements and Yvette Nolan, MacKenzie explores representations of gendered colonialist violence in order to determine the varying ways in which these representations are employed subversively and informatively by Indigenous women. These plays provide an avenue for individual and potential cultural healing by deconstructing some of the harmful ideological work performed by colonial misrepresentations of Indigeneity and demonstrate the strength and persistence of Indigenous women, offering a space in which decolonial futurisms can be envisioned. In this unique work, MacKenzie suggests that colonialist misrepresentations of Indigenous women have served to perpetuate demeaning stereotypes justifying devaluation of and violence against Indigenous women. Most significantly however she argues that resistant representations in Indigenous women's dramatic writing and production work in direct opposition to such representational and manifest violence     Sound & Vision ,2005     Canadian Television
