This was the discovery of America for a good number of our ancestors one quite different from the paradise Columbus heralded but no less instrumental in shaping the country's history. What finding the New World meant to those who never sought it and how they made the hostile unfamiliar continent their own is the subject of this volume the first truly international collection of essays on African American literature and culture. Distinguished scholars critics and writers from around the world gather here to examine a great variety of moments that have defined the African American experience. What were the values images and vocabulary that accompanied African explorers on their terrifying Columbiad and what new forms did they develop to re-invent America from a black perspective? How did an extremely heterogeneous group of African pioneers remake themselves as African Americans? The authors search out answers in such diverse areas as slavery the transatlantic tradition urbanization rape and lynching gender Paris periodicals festive moments a Berlin ethnologist Afrocentrism Mark Twain Spain Casablanca orality the 1960s Black Jewish relations television images comedy and magic William Wells Brown Frank Webb W E B Du Bois Alain Locke Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Etheridge Knight Ishmael Reed Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor and Charles Johnson are among the many writers they discuss in detail.
